Belmar: Ready For Summer 2014

Governor Christie and Belmar Mayor Matt Doherty have remained committed to rebuilding Belmar and the rest of the Jersey Shore in the aftermath of Superstorm Sandy. Ahead of the second summer since Sandy, Belmar has received recovery assistance through a number of federal and state programs as part of their rebuilding process.

FLASHBACK: Governor Christie: Damn, Boardwalks Are Opening All Over New Jersey

BY THE NUMBERS: BELMAR RECOVERY SINCE SANDY

$23,113,253

FEMA has obligated over $23.1 million in federal funds through the Public Assistance program to Belmar (and other municipal entities) for eligible debris removal, emergency services and rebuilding activities.

$15,936,226	Belmar residents and businesses have received approximately $15.9 million in payouts from the National Flood Insurance Program.
$5,090,000	Belmar residents have received approximately $5.09 million in FEMA Individual Assistance, which includes repair costs, replacement costs, rental assistance and other needs assistance.
$4,480,000	Belmar has received $4.48 million through the FEMA Community Disaster Loan (CDL) program.
$2,200,000	The Federal Highway Administration has identified roadway projects in Belmar worth approximately $2.2 million.
$1,616,000	4 Belmar homeowners signed RREM program grants totaling $516,786. Approximately 111 Belmar residents received Resettlement grants totaling $1.1 million.
$152,000	EDA Stronger NJ Business Grant has approved 7 grants to Belmar business worth $152,637.