They are in the process of updating them and will provide us with the updated recipes within the next few weeks Flagged by Lorena Paredes 01/26/2023 12:49 PM Recipes used have list of ingredients and creditable amounts but do not contain instructions on how to prepare the final product. Standardized recipes are required in the Child Nutrition Programs. A standardized recipe is one that has been tried, tested, evaluated, and adapted for use by your school food service. It produces a consistent quality and yield every time when the exact procedures, equipment, and ingredients are used. Recipes must be updated to include instructions. The recipes provided for the review week did not contain pertinent information that is needed to yield consistent results. Explain in detail, how the finding was corrected and the measures taken to ensure that it will not reoccur in the future. Indicate the date of implementation.
