NOTICE

1. Information supplied to the Commission and Division of Gaming Enforcement or otherwise obtained by either of them is confidential and shall not be revealed except in the course of the necessary administration of the Casino Control Act, or upon the lawful order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or with the approval of the Attorney General, to a duly authorized law enforcement agency pursuant to section 74 of the Casino Control Act. Nevertheless, an applicant or licensee waives any liability of the State of New Jersey and its instrumentalities and agents for any damages resulting from any disclosure or publication in any manner, other than a willfully unlawful disclosure or publication, pursuant to section 80 of the Casino Control Act.

2. An applicant for or holder of a license or registration under the Casino Control Act is subject to inspections, searches and seizures as authorized by the Act and by the regulations of the Commission. More specifically, section 79 of the Act, N.J.S.A. 5:12-79, empowers the Division of Gaming Enforcement to conduct searches, administrative inspections and, with the approval of its director, to "inspect the person, and personal effects present in a casino facility licensed under this act, of any holder of a license or registration issued pursuant to this act while that person is present in a licensed casino facility."

3. The filing fee which must accompany the submission of a casino service industry license application is not refundable once the application is accepted for filing. N.J.A.C. 19:41-9.19(b) states in pertinent part: "...amounts actually paid by an applicant or licensee in accordance with the Act and this subchapter shall not be refundable."

4. Pursuant to an amendment to section 92 of the Casino Control Act that became effective on September 1, 2001, no casino service industry license shall be issued to any person unless that person shall provide proof of valid business registration with the Division of Revenue in the Department of Treasury. The amendment to section 92 also provides that a licensed casino service contractor under contract with a casino applicant or licensee may not enter into any subcontract unless the subcontractor first provides the licensed contractor with proof of the subcontractor's business registration. The licensed casino service contractor is responsible for forwarding proof of the subcontractor's business registration to the Department of Treasury's Division of Taxation.

Effective September 1, 2001, businesses that register with the Division of Revenue are issued a business registration certificate. This certificate will serve as proof of valid business registration for purposes of casino service industry licensure.

If the prospective applicant for issuance or renewal of a casino service industry license has not registered with the Division of Revenue as required by New Jersey law, it can do so by utilizing the Division of Revenue's online registration service at <https://www.state.nj.us/treasury/revenue/dcr/reg/dcrnew01.prod.htm>, by calling the Registration Hotline at (609) 292-1730 to obtain a paper registration form, or by downloading a paper registration form from the Internet at www.state.nj.us/treasury/revenue/revprnt.htm. Once the prospective license applicant has registered with the Division of Revenue, that agency will send the prospective license applicant a business registration certificate.
