

Sandy Funding Criteria Worksheet

State Department:
NJ Department of Children and Families
Name of Expenditure Program:
SSBG Displaced Homemakers
Amount:
$460,000

Overview:

There are fifteen Displaced Homemaker (DH) Programs throughout New Jersey. Eight programs fall within those counties hardest hit by Hurricane Sandy. We propose to offer expanded Displaced Homemaker services through educational grants that will be applied toward eligible participants' educational certification process. Each of the eight DH Programs in the affected Hurricane Sandy areas would receive an additional $25,714 per year for up to a two year period to offer these services. Because Ocean County is one of Hurricane Sandy's hardest hit communities, we propose to make "whole" the Ocean County College Displaced Homemaker Program, currently a satellite office, to a fully funded DH Program by increasing the funding by an additional $60,000 per year and increasing the level of service from 42 to 90 (unduplicated clients per contract year). This additional $60,000 will be used to cover the costs to hire a career counselor/case manager. Currently one person is funded under this program. With additional staff, Ocean County College DH Program will be able to increase the DH services by expanding workshops; computer training, job readiness series, financial management; supportive services and referrals to assist more women in this hard hit Hurricane Sandy community reach economic self-sufficiency.
