Description
Though it is not the first house to occupy this location, the Isaac Watson House, built in 1708, is one of the earliest stone houses in Mercer County; it is architecturally notable for its cruck-framed roof; the house occupies a prominent bluff-top location overlooking Watson's Creek that is exceptionally rich in Native American archaeological remains; excavations in the immediate vicinity of the house in 1909, the 1930s and 1960s yielded an abundance of Native American artifacts and numerous burials

Relationship to other sites
One of several early historic bluff-top farmsteads.

Appendix C

TOURISM & RECREATIONAL MEMORANDUM (BY DAVID BYERS)

Tourism Destinations - Introduction

The following document lists tourism destinations that have various linkages to the Hamilton-Trenton-Bordentown Marsh and the Abbott Farm National Historic Landmark due to their close proximity to the marsh and/or thematic linkage.

The destination descriptions include a brief summary of the destinations including information regarding amenities, public access and any usage or visitation fees.

The destinations provide a wide variety of potential linkage opportunities including recreation, eco-tourism, cultural tourism and heritage tourism. The general destination categories include historic houses, museums, art museums, nature centers, environmental and historic interpretive centers, historical societies, passive and active recreational parks, river access, a cemetery, a power generating station, a landfill, a railroad station and a wetland re-creation site.

Destinations that are near the marsh or those that have a thematic linkage are shown on the accompanying maps. The maps printed in color show the locations of the labeled destinations. Red represents historical destinations. Green represents all parks including active and passive recreation. Blue represents sites that have water access along the Delaware River. Yellow represents other categories including a power generating station, a landfill and a railroad station.

Following the destination descriptions, there is a listing of tourism destinations by themes and also a listing of tourism destinations organized by themes into possible day trips. These themes and day trips include the following:

- Historic Houses and Estates
- Museums
- Parks
- Nature Centers
- Historic Cemetery
- Historical Society
- River Access
- Power Generating Station
- Landfill
- Railroad Station
- Wetland Re-creation Site
- Archeological Sites

- Weekend Only Tourism

There are numerous other combinations that could be considered as well. The lists are meant to provide a starting point for tourism planning.

Trenton-Hamilton-Bordentown Marsh Tourism Destinations

Abbott-Decou House (315)

The Abbott-Decou House, constructed in 1797, was the Homestead of Samuel and Lucy Abbott. The building is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. The house on Soloff Drive in Hamilton Township, NJ is a private residence and is not open to the public.

Abbott House Site (316)

The Abbott House Site was originally the home of archeologist Dr. Charles Conrad Abbott and his wife Julia Boggs Olden. Abbott became quite well known for his writings and published a book titled The Stone Age in New Jersey. Many of Abbott's theories were eventually disproved by scholars. He is considered to be New Jersey's first archeologist. Today only remnants of the house's foundation walls remain at the site.

Anchor Thread Park (6)

Anchor Thread Park is located on the site of a former textile mill on Crosswicks Creek. Amenities include a canoe launch ramp into Crosswicks Creek, ornamental landscaping, a gazebo and benches. The park is open from dawn to dusk.

Bordentown City Boat Ramp at Bordentown Beach (303)

The Bordentown City Boat Ramp provides access to the Delaware River and Crosswicks Creek. Amenities include parking, picnic tables and interpretive signage. The ramp is open from dawn to dusk and a ramp usage fee is required.

Bordentown Historical Society (24)

The Friends Meeting House built in 1740 now houses the Bordentown Historical Society's headquarters. The building has been restored to its original appearance and is open to the public Saturday afternoons from noon to 4:00pm except holidays and special event days. Street parking is generally available.

Bow Hill Mansion (26)

Bow Hill Mansion, built in 1787 was once the home of Joseph Bonaparte's mistress, Annette Savage, who had two daughters by Bonaparte. Joseph Bonaparte was the former King of Spain, Naples and Sicily. The property is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and now houses the Ukrainian-American Cultural Center. Amenities include parking and occasional historic tours. The building is usually not open to the general public.

City of Trenton Waterfront Boat Ramp (52)

The City of Trenton Waterfront Park Boat Ramp features a paved concrete boat ramp. Amenities include parking and seasonal restroom facilities. The ramp is open daily.

Civil War and Native American Museum (53)

The Civil War and Native American Museum in Hamilton Township is a small non-profit museum that occupies a house constructed about 1730 that was once part of the John Abbott II Farm. Amenities include parking, a gift shop and exhibits that include Civil War weaponry and Native American artifacts. The museum is open from 1:00pm to 4:00pm on the second and third Saturday of each month. School trips can be arranged by appointment.

Delaware and Raritan Canal State Park (72)

The Delaware and Raritan Canal was built between 1830 and 1834 and was used primarily for transporting coal. Portions of the remaining main canal extend from Bordentown to New Brunswick and a feeder canal extends from Raven Rock in Hunterdon County to Trenton. The canal was closed in 1932 and was established as a park in 1974. Amenities include canoeing, fishing, historic structures, birding, wildflowers, wildlife and a multi-use hiking and bicycling trail.

Docks on the Delaware (74)

The Docks on the Delaware located behind Trenton's Waterfront Park and are open daily from dawn to dusk, from May 21 to October 31 and are handicap accessible.

Duck Island (79)

Duck Island wetland re-creation area is located at the southern terminus of Lambertson Road where there is parking, access for fishing and a footpath along the edge of the Duck Island marsh. Amenities include fishing access, trails for hiking and a parking area.

Fishing Facility at the PSE&G Mercer Generating Station (317)

The Fishing Facility at the PSE&G Mercer Generating Station is located just south of the PSE&G Power Plant. Access to the area is provided through a security gate adjacent to Lambertson Road that connects to the Delaware River via a long linear walkway. Access is permitted for recreation and fishing. Amenities include parking, interpretive signage and access to the Delaware River for fishing.

Gropps Lake (318)

Gropps Lake is a 41 acre lake located on Back Creek, owned by Hamilton Township. The lake was created for recreational purposes in 1900 following the construction of an earthen dam. Access is permitted during daylight hours only. Launching of car top boats is permitted. However, there is no boat ramp. The use of outboard motors for boating is prohibited.

Grounds for Sculpture (104)

The Grounds for Sculpture, established in 1992, is a 35 acre sculpture park and museum located on the former New Jersey State Fairgrounds. There are more than 250 sculptures on view in the park. Amenities include seasonal outdoor and indoor exhibits, tours, a gazebo, restaurant, cafe, museum shop, and restrooms. The facility is open year-round, Tuesday through Sunday 10:00am to 6:00pm. An entry fee is required.

Hilltop Park (115)

Hilltop Park is a small residential park located in Bordentown on the edge of the bluffs overlooking the site of the Delaware and Raritan Canal's Lock #1. The picturesque park has an interpretive exhibit explaining the history of the Hamilton-Trenton Marsh. The park contains a memorial to William R. Flynn. The park also has a memorial to Franklin Carr who was well known as an international prize winning Iris hybridizer.
