Executive Order 98 - 1

WHEREAS the county does not desire to do business with companies that compete by exploiting their workforce rather than by running efficient, reliable and responsible operations; and

WHEREAS, the county purchases items of apparel and textiles, which is an industry in which many scandals have been uncovered in which producers maintain sweatshop conditions, such as paying poverty wages, violating workplace regulations, and suppressing worker rights; and

WHEREAS, such conditions in apparel and other industries threaten the jobs and working conditions of all workers; and

WHEREAS, it is the policy of the county that it should not purchase, rent or lease goods or services produced under such conditions; and

WHEREAS, sweatshop conditions flourish when the conditions of workers are hidden; and

WHEREAS, pressure from institutional purchasers such as governments is one of the most effective ways to combat sweatshop production,

THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that it is the policy of the county that it should not purchase, lease, rent or take on consignment goods or services produced under sweatshop conditions, and that the following guidelines, criteria and procedures are adopted:

Such information will be considered public information.

B. Certification of Compliance. The bidder or vendor shall certify each location, including sub-contractor locations, substantially involved in producing or distributing goods or services covered by this act meets the following standards:

The determination of the legality of a particular action will be made from the facts, on a case by case basis.

The Commission will examine the circumstances of the particular employment relationship and the job functions performed by the individual in determining whether an individual in determining whether an individual acts in either a supervisory or agency capacity.

(d) With respect to conduct between fellow employees, employer is responsible for acts of sexual harassment in the workplace where the employer (or its agents or supervisory employees) knows or should have known of the conduct, unless it can be show that it took immediate and appropriate corrective action.

(e) An employer may also be responsible for the acts of non-employees, with respect to sexual harassment of employees in the workplace, where the employer (or its agents or supervisory employees) knows or should have known of the conduct and fails to take immediate and appropriate corrective action. In reviewing these cases the Commission will consider the extent of the employer's control and any other legal responsibility, which the employer may have with respect to the conduct of such non-employees.
