As of January 25th, the CSC has been unable to secure the required number of testing locations which meet the necessary requirements for the administration of the Police Sergeant's test on April 13, 2013. For this reason, alternate test dates are being explored. Once a suitable test date is secured, it will be posted on this website. Candidates will receive written notification of their official test date, time and location approximately three weeks prior to the test date. Additional information is outlined in the Orientation Guide that was posted on the Civil Service Commission website on February 5, 2013.
