

Exits to Reunification

Source: U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Children's Bureau (Outcome 3.1)

In 2012, New Jersey 63.7% of the children exiting placement were being reunified. This puts New Jersey on the high end of the range for the percentage of children reunified, and ranks us #19 among the 50 states, District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

Reunification (%)

Note: This map is for 2012, and the darker color indicates a higher percentage of exits to reunification

New Jersey has shown continued improvement in the percentage of children leaving foster care for reunification resulting as indicated in the table below:

Year	% Exiting to Reunification	Rank (n=52)
2012	63.7%	19
2011	60.5%	26
2010	58.6%	30
2009	58.6%	32