

People turn to New Jersey nonprofits every day.

Where do nonprofits turn?

To the Center for Non-Profits.

For 30+ years, the champion and first-stop resource for and about New Jersey's nonprofit community

Serving Those Who Serve

- High-quality legal and management information
- Expert phone and email consultation
- Timely online and email news and articles
- Affordable workshops and webinars on the topics nonprofits need

Strengthening the Nonprofit Voice

- The most comprehensive information source about New Jersey nonprofits
- Advocating for nonprofits in Trenton and Washington
- Communicating the value of nonprofits through research and public education
- Uniting our state's nonprofits around common goals

Helping Nonprofits Stretch Scarce Resources

- Cost-saving member services: insurance, unemployment, payroll and more
- Discounts on workshops and publications
- Leveraging nonprofits' dollars by serving as a single resource for these and many other services

A sound investment: in your organization ... in New Jersey's nonprofits.

Helping organizations build a better New Jersey

3575 Quakerbridge Road, Suite 102, Mercerville, NJ 08619 ■ tel: 732.227.0800 ■ fax: 732.227.0087
center@njnonprofits.org ■ www.njnonprofits.org

What Others are Saying about the Center

“For those of us who work in, work for, donate to and are served by nonprofit organizations in New Jersey we are fortunate to have the Center for Non-Profits watching our backs and protecting our independence.”

– Nina Stack, President, Council of New Jersey Grantmakers

“I have worked with and represented non-profits for many years, and have found the Center to be an invaluable resource. The Center’s staff possesses a tremendous breadth and depth of knowledge that is relevant to every aspect of non-profit operation. More importantly, they are committed and concerned people, who want non-profits to succeed because they care deeply about the social causes and issues that motivate so many of the groups the Center assists.”

– Connie Pascale, Vice-President and Assistant General Counsel, Legal Services of New Jersey

“Even before I was a member, whenever I called with some question I was (and continued to be) so very impressed! No matter what my question was about: legal issues, technical, ethical, insurance, contracts... there was never a time I spoke with someone I wasn’t impressed with.”

– Miriam Bloom, Director of Operations, Zoe’s Place

“The increased demands on non-profit services, coupled with decreased public and private funding, make the work of the Center even more important to the health of our state.”

– Christopher J. Daggett, President and CEO, Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation

“We’re proud to be a member.”

– Kathleen DiChiara, President and CEO, Community FoodBank of New Jersey

“As a small non-profit, and a member of the Center, one can in effect have all the tools and departments of a large agency. The Center provides the most recent, up to date and practical information on human resource issues, liability issues, and legal issues. I could not have grown my agency without them!”

– Mary Pat Angelini, Executive Director, Prevention First

“What you’re doing is worth gold...no other organization can do what you’re doing with the meticulous focus and excellent advocacy you bring to such critical issues.”

– Donna Pressma, President and CEO, Children’s Home Society of New Jersey

“In the day to day turmoil that we all face in the non-profit world, many of us lose sight of the bigger picture. The Center helps me remember the bigger picture. It reminds me that what affects any segment of the non-profit community affects me.”

– James A. Hemm, Former Executive Director, NJ Association on Correction

Contact us for more information.

Helping organizations build a better New Jersey

3575 Quakerbridge Road, Suite 102, Mercerville, NJ 08619 ■ tel: 732.227.0800 ■ fax: 732.227.0087
center@njnonprofits.org ■ www.njnonprofits.org

