

Double Trouble State Park

Boy Scout & Girl Scout Advancement Opportunities

Scouts have the opportunity to work on various advancement requirements while visiting the Double Trouble Village State Historic Site and Double Trouble State Park. Most can be accomplished independently by the Scout and leaders. Some may require scheduling a program. Advancement requirements listed are current as of September 2015. Check with your Scouting leader before starting any advancement requirement. For further information, please contact the Double Trouble Village State Historic Site Interpretive Center at 732-341-4098.
