Most condominium policies in New Jersey include the following common coverages:

- Dwelling (Coverage A) Your condominium policy will cover property that is permanently installed in your condo unit that is not otherwise covered by your condominium association’s insurance policy.
- Personal property (Coverage C) pays if the items in your condo unit (such as furniture, clothing, computers and TVs) are damaged, stolen, or destroyed by a covered loss.
- Loss of use (Coverage D) pays your additional living expenses (costs over the normal amount for housing, food, and other essential expenses) if you must temporarily move because damage to your condo unit from a covered loss renders it uninhabitable.
- Personal liability (Coverage E) pays to defend you in court against certain lawsuits and provides coverage if you are found legally responsible for someone else’s injury or property damage.
- Medical payments to others (Coverage F) pays the medical bills of people hurt on your property. It might also pay for some injuries that happen away from your condo unit, such as your dog biting someone at the park.

Policy Features

- Companies may exclude coverage for certain losses. Even the most comprehensive policy will exclude certain types of damage.
- All policies include an all-peril deductible. The deductible is the portion for which you are responsible on a covered property loss.
- Some policies may include a separate optional wind/hail and/or a mandatory or optional hurricane deductible.
- Companies may offer optional coverages that include loss assessment, coverage for oil tank liability, water back up and sump pump overflow, ordinance or law coverage, earthquake and scheduled personal property such as jewelry, fine arts, furs or silverware.
