RE: Annual Statement Fees

Effective June 30, 1995, the State of New Jersey passed a special purpose funding bill (P.L. 1995c. 156) that requires that the State expenses incurred by the State in connection with the administration of the special functions of the Department of Banking and Insurance relative to the financial regulation, supervision and monitoring of insurer and health maintenance organizations be apportioned among insurers and health maintenance organizations doing business in new Jersey. The bill also provides that companies that pay the special purpose apportionment do not need to pay annual filings fees.

Therefore, please complete the following and return with annual statement:

DIRECT WRITTEN PREMIUMS IN NEW JERSEY $ _____

in 2010 by _____ (Company Name)

If the amount in the above blank is greater than 0, your company does not owe filing fees in New Jersey for 2010. However, if your company had no direct premiums written in New Jersey in 2010, a $100.00 filing fee, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 11:1-32.1 et seq. is required. All fees will be subject to audit. Your check should be made payable to the State Treasurer of New Jersey.
