Commissioner Badolato Attends the Insurance Council of New Jersey 40th Annual Meeting and Conference

MONROE —Department of Banking and Insurance Commissioner Richard J. Badolato on October 13th attended the 40th Annual Meeting and Conference hosted by the Insurance Council of New Jersey (ICNJ) at Forsgate Country Club in Monroe Township. Department staff and industry experts participated in panels and exchanged information during the morning conference. Commissioner Badolato opened the meeting with remarks.

"The New Jersey auto and homeowners insurance markets are stable and growing," said Commissioner Badolato. "We continue to work on getting new property and casualty carriers to operate in New Jersey for the benefit of our consumers and the economy."
