7/2012-6/2013	The Generations: Descendants of Holocaust Survivors. A Book Club and Yiddish Club were formed, each meeting every other month. Additionally, there were trips to the Folksbiene National Yiddish Theater, and the Museum of Jewish Heritage: A Tribute to the Holocaust in NY.Generations speaker training began.	0	0	5	340
8/26/2012	1st *Challenge for Chhange, a 5K Run/Walk. Survivors were in attendance for the Opening Ceremonies which included the dedication of our sign and the passing down of the survivors' history to the next generation.	8	0	23	260
9/2012-6/2013	Holocaust survivors continue to visit classrooms and speak to school and community groups..	5,985	171	9	275
9/2012-6/2013	In-school programming continues from September to June. Once again, our A Journey to Life Curriculum Suitcases went out to middle and high schools across the state for as long as several days to a month. Suitcases visited 10 schools--2 high schools and 8 middle schools. Etty: A Conversation was part of Monmouth University Race Conference. A 2-day institute for Red Bank Regional HighSchool	2,055	30	0	0
9/2012-6/2013	Chhange once again hosted the Clinical Pastoral Counseling Program from Overlook Hospital in Summit, NJ at a one-day seminar held three times yearly, once each semester.Holocaust survivors Helena Flaum and Gerard Blumenthal were there to provide testimony, with the focus on helping the international and multidenominational clergy develop a deeper understanding of trauma and loss.	0	36	4	0

9/2012-3/2013	The Annual Luna Kaufman Writing and Art Contest was open to students in grades 7-12. Students submitted creative writing and poetry pieces in the Writing category and art pieces using all genres of media. This year's themes were connected to the book A Lesson Before Dying by Ernest J. Gaines, which was the selection for The Big Read.	74	14	0	0
10/1/2012	Co-founders, Dr. Seymour Siegler and Professor Jack Needle, hosted the Wednesday Morning Film Series during the Fall semester. The theme was Rescuers.	5	2	2	30
10/2012-11/2012	Professor Needle also hosted his Fall Lecture and Discussion Series featuring: From General to Private: Racial Attitudes in the United States Army in WWII; Hitler and the United States: War Aims; and The Pink Triangle: Homosexuals in the Nazi Era. This last lecture was co-sponsored by the ALLY Program at Brookdale Community College.	15	3	2	13
10/22/2012	Meet the Author: Caryn Mirriam-Goldberg, shared her newest book, Needle in the Bone: How a Holocaust Survivor and Polish Resistance Fighter Beat the Odds and Found Each Other. Caryn, a former Brookdale Community College student, is now Poet Laureate of Kansas.	0	0	0	17
11/18/2012	Public Opening of Chhange's Center was held with our very first temporary exhibit on display, Recovering Memory: the Art of Claire Boren. Claire is an accomplished local artist and Holocaust survivor, hidden during the war in the forests of Poland. She had repressed most of her memories of the war, but these memories began to emerge through her art and resurfaced in almost every project. Her abstract work in mixed media allowed her to extend her interior world into the exterior one of her art.	12	26	23	345
12/7/2012	Chhange hosted the 11th Annual Council of Holocaust Educators Conference, Museum and Schools: An Alliance for Learning. Keynote speakers were Stephen Feinberg of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and Noah Rauch of the National 9/11 Memorial Museum. A virtual field trip experience to our new facility was presented, and a team of educators provided some insight into utilizing 9/11 classroom resources.	0	50	0	0
12/12/2012	A Special Open House Event for Educators was held, affording them an oppportunity to socialize, converse with each other and Center staff, tour our new facility and the art exhibit, and learn about programs and events offered by Chhange.	0	11	0	0

12/14/2012	Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for the new home of the Center for Holocaust, Human Rights & Genocide Education was held, attended by survivors, the Board of Trustees of Brookdale Community College, College President Dr. Maureen Murphy, and members of the Board of Directors of Chhange.	38	28	8	135
1/1/2013	Chhange was pleased to participate in Red Bank's Martin Luther King Day Commemoration. Working with Pilgrim Baptist Church, community organizations like Lunch Break, religious institutions and all Red Bank schools, an outstanding event was put together.	52	18	0	269
10/2012-4/2013	Chhange is one of 76 organizations nationwide selected for the prestigious Big Read* Grant from the NEA. A Lesson Before Dying by Ernest J. Gaines took center stage as individuals, classes, book clubs, libraries and art agencies came together to read/discuss the book and enjoy related films, speakers and art events. The book deals with the themes of social justice, education and preserving human dignity, all of which relate to the mission of Chhange.Between February and April, activities included roundtables for middle/high school faculty, dramatic presentations of pivotal scenes from the book, lectures on Growing Up Black in the Segregated South, film screenings/ discussions of The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman, Dead Man Walking and Scottsboro: An American Tragedy. Kick-off Special Event was Sister Helen Prejean, Roman Catholic nun, death penalty activist and author of Dead Man Walking. The Innocence Project featuring Kirk Bloodsworth, an exonerated death row inmate found innocent through DNA testing was the March Special Event. This all concluded in April with the Keynote Event: Videoconference with Ernest J. Gaines.Statistics: 57 programs coordinated by Chhange; 33 public programs, 24 with limited audience; 17 schools (10 midddle, 7 high, 7 BCC departments); 14 community partners; 13 sponsorship partners; 41 volunteers who contributed 894 hours. The Big Read is the most extensive collaborative programming Chhange has undertaken and it met with great success. Every event was interactive and most were open to all members of the community, resulting in diverse audiences and engaging discussions. For the first time ever, the Monmouth County Correctional Institution participated in a community event. Lunch Break of Red Bank, a "soup" kitchen,had active programming with their clients.	1475	110	0	2104

4/8/2013	The annual Yom HaShoah Remembrance Commemoration was once again held in collaboration with the former Fort Monmouth Holocaust Remembrance Committee. Choosing to Act: Rescuing Children, featured Ruth Banker Rosenfeld, a hidden child of the Holocaust, who shared her story of survival, and Dr. Suzanne Vromen, a Holocaust survivor and Professsor Emeritus in Sociology at Bard College. Dr. Vromen spoke about her personal experience and the writing of her book, Hidden Children of the Holocaust: Belgian Nuns and Their Daring Rescue of Young Jews from the Nazis. The Brookdale Chorale and the beautiful strings of Peggy Gaber-Casey and Amy Garland were in perfect harmony with the color guard and naval escorts of Earle Weapons Station. All survivors who attended had the opportunity before the program to enjoy a light breakfast and reconnect with each other. Following the program, a luncheon was held back at our Center so our event sponsors could have the special opportunity to speak with the program presenters while enjoying a lovely lunch.	9	3	32	245
4/23/2013	On Tuesday evening, April 23rd we hosted the annual Armenian Genocide Remembrance with Chris Bohjalian, author of the N.Y Times bestseller and Oprah Book of the Week, The Sandcastle Girls. This romantic epic story relives the Armenian Genocide which took place in Turkey nearly 100 years ago, when 1.5 million Christian Armenians were killed in an extermination planned by the Ottoman government. The novel is a stirring depiction of the impact of genocide on generations of women and is inspired by the author's Armenian heritage. We are most grateful to Adrienne and Dick McOmber for their dedication and support of this event. The Brookdale Community College Visiting Writers Series was our partner in this program.	75	34	0	128
6/4/2013-6/5/2013	The seventh graders from Cedar Drive Middle School in Colts Neck had the unique opportunity to have Lunch With a Survivor. On each of the two days, each group of 8 students sat with a Holocaust survivor for lunch and had the extraordinary opportunity to hear their testimony, ask questions and then take a pledge to serve as a witness for the future, especially in the year 2045.	140	19	18	20
6/12/2013	On Wednesday, June 12th, Chhange welcomed the Directors of Holocaust/Genocide Study Centers from across the state for their annual meeting with the New Jersey State Commission on Holocaust Education.	0	25	0	0
6/17/2013	Annual Volunteer Recognition Dinner. A number of awards were given that night to the winners of the Annual Luna Kaufman Writing & Art Contest the winner of the Siegler Family Outstanding Lesson Plan Award.	7	20	16	0
10/2012-6/2013	School classes and community groups visited Chhange for individualized programming	411	22	12	53

PLEASE NOTE	Between the months of June, 2012 through April, 2013 The Sam Azeez Museum of Woodbine heritage was under construction. We were forced to close to the public for several weeks due to accessibility to our building. This situation hampered our ability to host as many student groups in house. We continued to be completely amerced in the greater community as representatives of the Commission.
