IN THE MATTER OF : BEFORE THE

MICHAEL E. GLASCOE : SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION

AND J. MICHAEL RUSH : STATE-OPERATED SCHOOL :

DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF : Docket: C36-07 PATERSON, : DECISION

PASSAIC COUNTY :

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a complaint initially filed by four complainants, Jacqueline A. Rogers, Deborah L. Higgins, Tamika Bolds and Bilal Hakeem against Michael E. Glascoe, Superintendent and J. Michael Rush, Deputy Superintendent, in the State-operated School District of the City of Paterson ("District"). Because the complaint did not meet the requirements set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.1 et seq., the complainants were provided the opportunity to submit an amended complaint. On October 30, 2007, an amended complaint was filed by Jacqueline A. Rogers and Deborah L. Higgins against the same two school officials, alleging violations of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24(b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i). An Answer was filed on behalf of respondent Glascoe on was filed on December 10, 2007 and on behalf of respondent Rush on December 11, 2007. The complainants and respondents were invited to appear at the Commission's meeting on July 22, 2008. Complainant Jacqueline Rogers appeared, as did Philip E. Stern, Esq., counsel for Dr. Glascoe and Richard McOmber, Esq., counsel for Dr. Rush. At that meeting, the Commission dismissed the complaint as being untimely, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.1(b).

The complainants allege that in 2005, then Commissioner of Education William J. Librera appointed a search committee to locate a new Superintendent for the Paterson School District. The complainants contend that, as the Chief of Staff for the Department of Education at the time, respondent Rush was a member of the search committee which selected Michael Glascoe. After respondent Glascoe became the Superintendent, according to the complainants, he hired respondent Rush to the position of Deputy Superintendent of the District. The complainants assert that they "became aware of this violation of the School Ethics Act on May 23, 2007." (Complaint at page 2). They affirm these alleged facts constitute a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i).

Respondents Glascoe and Rush responded to the allegations, both denying that Rush was a member of the search committee that hired Dr. Glascoe. Rather, respondent Rush explained that it was the Advisory Board of Education of the City of Paterson (i.e., the Paterson Board) which selected the persons to be interviewed, conducted the interviews and ultimately selected Dr. Glascoe. As a State-operated School District, Dr. Glascoe's appointment was based upon the recommendation of Commissioner Librera to the State Board of Education. N.J.S.A. 18A:7A-35(a). Additionally, the respondents raised the affirmative defense of untimeliness in their answers, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.1(b).

As a threshold issue, the attorneys for the respondents raised before the Commission the issue of the untimeliness of the complaint. Counsel argued that the complaint was filed more than two years after the appointments took place. The regulation governing the filing of complaints before the Commission is clear in that a complaint must be filed within one year of notice of the alleged violation. Counsel argued that there was no reason to assume that the complainants did not have access to the information at the time of the appointments in 2005. The Board meetings are televised locally. The documents submitted in accordance with the complaint were accessible on the internet. The facts which form the basis of the complaint were not hidden from the public. Thus, counsel urged the Commission to dismiss the complaint as time-barred.

Ms. Rogers was sworn in and the Commission heard testimony solely on the issue of timeliness. Ms. Rogers testified that she was born and raised in Paterson and was living there in 2005 when the appointments took place. However, she testified that she had not taken an active role in District issues until her son went to school. She attended a school board meeting in May 2007 and later did some research. Ms. Rogers testified that she was aware that the meetings were public and were televised. She would see the meetings as she "flipped through the channels," but did not focus on them. Ms. Rogers also acknowledged that she has a computer.

The Commission requested that the parties leave the room to allow it to deliberate. After discussion, the Commission determined to dismiss the complaint as untimely, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.1(b). Accordingly, the Commission did not reach to the merits of the matter.

ANALYSIS

The Commission initially notes that, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.1(b), "[a]ll complaints must be filed within one year of notice of the alleged violation." On this record, there is no dispute that the events which formed the basis of the complaint were available to the public as early as 2005. Indeed, the documents appended to the complaint confirm that Dr. Glascoe was appointed in July 2005 and Dr. Rush was appointed in November 2005. Ms. Rogers did not deny that she had access to this information in 2005.

The Commission recognizes that limitation periods of the type herein serve to discourage dilatoriness and provide a measure of repose in the conduct of school affairs. Kaprow v. Berkley Township Bd. of Educ., 131 N.J. 571, 587 (1993). Thus, "notice of the alleged violation" must be interpreted in a manner that anticipates the reasonable diligence of the complainant(s). Even recognizing that a matter such as this is brought in the public's interest and not to adjudicate the rights of the complainants, see In the Matter of Frank Pannucci, Board of Education of Brick Township, Ocean County, State Board of Education, March 1, 2000, slip. op. at p. 9, the Commission must balance this public interest against the important policy of repose and a respondent's right to fairness. Here, the complainants merely state that they "became aware of this violation of the School Ethics Act on May 23, 2007." (Complaint at page 2) Absent any indication that the facts as alleged by the complainants were unavailable or otherwise concealed from them, see, Reilly v. Brice, 109 N.J. 555, 559 (1998), the Commission finds that the complaint is untimely pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.1(b) and it will not reach to the merits of the case. As such, the Commission is mindful that the time limitations set forth in the regulations must be enforced if it is to operate in a fair and consistent manner. Philips v. Streckenbein et al., Edgewater Park Bd. of Educ., C19-03 (June 24, 2003).

DECISION

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission dismisses the complaint as time-barred. This decision is a final decision of an administrative agency. Therefore, it is appealable only to the Superior Court--Appellate Division. See, New Jersey Court Rule 2:2-3(a).
