THEO SPENCER

SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION

Docket No. C41-09

MARTHA WILSON,

v.

CAMDEN BOARD OF EDUCATION CAMDEN COUNTY

DECISION ON

MOTION TO DISMISS

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a complaint filed on October 19, 2009 alleging that Martha Wilson, a member of the Camden Board of Education (Board) violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. The complainant specifically alleges that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and (f) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members.

On November 23, 2009, a Motion to Dismiss was filed on behalf of the respondent, which included an allegation that the complaint was frivolous. The complainant failed to file a timely response. At its meeting on January 26, 2010, the Commission determined to dismiss the complaint without prejudice. The Commission also found that the complaint was not frivolous.

SUMMARY OF THE PLEADINGS

The complainant asserts that on April 8, 2009, the Camden Board of Education's Finance Committee met to evaluate proposals for an insurance broker. Among the participants were the complainant and the respondent, who although not a member of the Committee, frequently attended the meetings. Brokers made presentations to the Committee; subsequently, the Committee members and respondent had a brief discussion. The Committee was not going to recommend the District's current broker, M&C Insurance, which was seeking both a commission and a sizable service fee. Instead, the Board was considering Alston-Calaf and Willis HRH. According to the complainant, the respondent made a favorable comment about Alston-Calaf. Additionally, the complainant asserts that the respondent knew the Board was not considering M&C Insurance. (Complaint at paragraphs 1-6)

¹ Counsel for the respondent provided proof that he served the complainant with a copy of the Motion to Dismiss by regular and certified mail on November 20, 2009. A copy of the green card indicates that the respondent signed for the delivery on November 23, 2009. By notice dated November 23, 2009, the School Ethics Commission acknowledged receipt of the respondent's Motion to Dismiss in Lieu of Answer and notified the parties that the complainant had 20 days from receipt of the motion to file an original and two copies of a responsive brief, including a response to any allegations of frivolous filing, together with proof of service. The complainant did not submit a request for clarification of the due date or a request for an extension of time in which to respond. Accordingly, by notice dated December 18, 2009, the Commission notified the parties that the Motion to Dismiss, together with allegation of frivolousness, would be placed on the Commission's agenda on January 26, 2010. On January 8, 2010, the complainant filed a response, which was not considered by the Commission since it was outside of the time period prescribed in regulation.

According to the complainant, M&C Insurance, one of the brokers, thereafter sent an unsolicited letter to the State monitor indicating they were willing to waive their service fee. The complainant asserts that "The only way M&C Insurance would have known their service fee was an issue was if someone in our meeting talked to them." (Id. at paragraph 7) At the May 5, 2009 reorganization meeting, the respondent "reversed her decision" and voted against Alston-Calaf. There was a 4-4 vote with one abstention; the State monitor intervened and Alston-Calaf was appointed as broker. M&C Insurance sued the Board, claiming it had improperly administered the RFP process which was partially based on the Board's rejection of their offer to waive the service fee. Thereafter, articles appeared in The Courier Post showing that the respondent accepted campaign contributions in excess of $300 from entities directly connected with M&C Insurance. The complainant contends that because the contribution threshold is $300, the respondent should not have participated in any Finance Committee meetings where the insurance broker was discussed and she should not have voted for the broker. (Id. at paragraphs 8-10)

The complainant appended a series of documents to the complaint showing respondent's 2008 campaign contribution reports, a Finance Committee Report from the April 8, 2009 meeting, a letter from M&C Insurance waiving the service fee, the May 5, 2009 official reorganization minutes, the State monitor's May 8, 2009 explaining his decision to override the Board's vote and accept Alston-Calaf as broker and an October 11, 2009 The Courier Post article.

ANALYSIS

In determining whether to grant a Motion to Dismiss, the Commission shall review the facts in the light most favorable to the complainant and determine whether the allegation(s), if true, could establish a violation of the Act. Unless the parties are otherwise notified, Motions to Dismiss and any responses thereto are reviewed by the Commission on a summary basis. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-8.3.

Thus, the question before the Commission was whether the complainant alleged facts which, if true, could support a finding that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) and (f) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members. In so doing, the Commission notes that, for complaints alleging a violation of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members, the complainant has the burden to factually establish a violation in accordance with the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a). Granting all inferences to the complainant, and even assuming all facts to be true, the Commission finds that the complainant failed to meet this standard.

The Commission initially notes that the complainant never specifically alleges that the respondent conveyed information to M&C Insurance. Rather, he states, "The only way M&C Insurance would have known their service fee was an issue was if someone in the meeting talked to them." (Complaint at paragraph 7). Thereafter, the complainant states that the respondent voted against an award of the contract to Alston-Calaf.

The complainant first asserts that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e), which provides:

I will recognize that authority rests with the board of education and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that may compromise the board.

The Commission's regulations further provide that:

Factual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) shall include evidence that the respondent made personal promises or took action beyond the scope of his or her duties such that, by its nature, had the potential to compromise the board. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)5.

There is no allegation in the complaint that the respondent "made personal promises" of any kind. Neither are there any facts, which if true, would establish that the respondent took actions beyond the scope of her duty. She attended the Finance Committee meeting as a Board member, she discussed the proposals as a Board member and she voted on the award of the contract as a Board member. (Complaint at paragraphs 1-6) The complainant's contention that "[t]he only way M&C Insurance would have known their service fee was an issue was if someone in our meeting talked to them" merely insinuates that the respondent is the "someone," but offers no facts, that if true, would support a finding of violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e).

The Commission next considers the complainant's allegation that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f), which provides:

I will refuse to surrender my independent judgment to special interest or partisan political groups or to use the schools for personal gain or for the gain of friends.

The Commission's regulations further provide that:

Factual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f) shall include evidence that the respondent(s) took action on behalf of, or at the request of, a special interest group or persons organized and voluntarily united in opinion and who adhere to a particular political party or cause; or evidence that the respondent(s) used the schools in order to acquire some benefit for the respondent(s), a member of his or her immediate family or a friend. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)6.

There are no facts alleged in this complaint which, if true, would support a finding that the respondent took action on behalf of, or at the request of, a special interest group or partisan political group. Presumably, this allegation is based on the contention that the respondent changed her position with respect to awarding the insurance broker contract to Alston-Calaf. Yet it does not follow, nor does the complainant specifically allege, that in voting against Alston-Calaf, respondent was using the schools for some personal gain or for the gain of her friends. As the respondent argued, "the sole allegation is that that [sic] Wilson was not permitted to or otherwise should not have voted, which in turn is predicated upon the alleged political contributions in the complaint." (Respondent's Motion at page 15) Accordingly, the Commission finds that even if the facts alleged by the complainant are true, these facts would not support a finding of violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(f).

REQUEST FOR SANCTIONS

Thus, at its meeting on January 26, 2010, the Commission considered the respondent's request that the Commission find that the complaint was frivolous and impose sanctions pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(e). The Commission does not find that the complainant "[c]ommenced, used or continued [this matter] in bad faith, solely for the purpose of harassment, delay or malicious injury;" or that the complainant "knew, or should have known," that the matter "was without any reasonable basis in law or equity and could not be supported by a good faith argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law." N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.2. For the foregoing reasons, the Commission finds that the complaint is not frivolous and denies the respondent's request for sanctions against the complainant.

DECISION

The Commission grants the respondent's Motion to Dismiss this complaint, but does so without prejudice to the complainant's right to bring a conflict-of-interest claim under the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24 et seq., if he maintains that there are facts sufficient to warrant the Commission's review. Any such facts and claims must be raised in a duly filed complaint, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.1 et seq.
