PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from an Order to Show Cause (OTSC) issued on November 20, 2007, through regular and certified mail return receipt requested, directing Neil Goetze, a “school official” under N.J.S.A. 18A:12-23 of the School Ethics Act, to show cause as to why the Commission should not find the school official in violation of the School Ethics Act, (Act) N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq., for failing to file personal/relative and financial disclosure statements pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and 26. In its letter enclosing the OTSC, the Commission provided notification that this school official had 20 days to respond to the OTSC, that the Commission would discuss this matter at its December 18, 2007 meeting, that the school official had the right to attend the meeting, and that the school official could be found in violation of the Act and receive a penalty up to removal. The school official did not provide an answer to the Commission’s OTSC and has failed to file the disclosure statements.

The school official did not appear at the Commission’s meeting of December 18, 2007, at which time the Commission found probable cause to credit the allegation that the school official violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and 26. The Commission found that the material facts were not in dispute and, therefore, the Commission found that the school official’s failure to file the disclosure statements after receipt of the OTSC constitutes a clear violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and 26. The Commission recommended that the Commissioner of Education impose a sanction of suspension until the school official files the disclosure statements, removal if the disclosure statements are not filed within 30 days of the Commissioner’s decision on penalty, and censure if the disclosure statements are filed prior to issuance of the Commissioner’s decision.

ANALYSIS

N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 of the School Ethics Act requires each school official to file personal/relative and financial disclosure statements and N.J.S.A. 18A:12-26 requires each school official to file the personal/relative and financial disclosure statements with the School Ethics Commission. The deadline to file these disclosure statements was April 30, 2007 for school officials in office since January 30, 2006 and 30 days from swearing-in or start of employment for newly elected or appointed board members and administrators. The School

Ethics Commission was advised by the County Superintendent that this school official did not file the disclosure statements as required by the Act. The school official has not filed the disclosure statements as of the date of this decision. The Commission finds probable cause to credit the allegation that the school official violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and 26. The Commission also finds that the material facts are not in dispute and, therefore, the Commission finds that the school official's failure to file the disclosure statements after receipt of the OTSC constitutes a clear violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and 26.

DECISION/PENALTY RECOMMENDATION

Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds that Neil Goetze violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-25 and 26. The Commission also finds that this school official was given ample opportunity to provide the complete disclosure statements. The Commission recommends that the Commissioner of Education impose a sanction of suspension until the school official files the disclosure statements, removal if the disclosure statements are not filed within 30 days of the Commissioner's decision on penalty, and censure if the disclosure statements are filed prior to issuance of the Commissioner's decision.

This decision has been adopted by a formal resolution of the School Ethics Commission. This matter shall now be transmitted to the Commissioner of Education for action on the Commission's recommendation for sanction only, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29. Within 13 days from the date on which the Commission's decision was mailed to the parties, the school official may file written comments on the recommended sanction with the Commissioner of Education, c/o Bureau of Controversies and Disputes, P.O. Box 500, Trenton, NJ 08625, marked "Attention: Comments on Ethics Commission Sanction." A copy of any comments filed must be sent to the School Ethics Commission and all other parties.
