ADDITIONAL NARRATIVE PROVIDED BY THE DIVISION:

Postdoctoral Fellowships are three-year awards of $50,000 per annum. They provide an annual stipend of $36,000, a research allowance of $13,000, and a travel budget of $1,000. No part of the award may be used for institutional overhead or indirect costs. Institutions may supplement stipends, but not with other full-time fellowship awards, or other NJCSCR monies. A candidate may not apply for a NJCSCR Postdoctoral Fellowship and a NJCSCR Individual Research grant in the same grant cycle. If a first-year fellow applies for and is awarded a NJCSCR Individual Research grant, funding will be contingent upon cancellation of the fellowship. Non-research activities, such as teaching, may not occupy more than 10% of the fellow's time. All Postdoctoral Fellows must submit a yearly Progress Report accompanied by a letter of support from the fellow's mentor. Second or third year fellowship funding is contingent upon the successful review of the progress report and a recommendation from the mentor.

Graduate Student Fellowships are two-year awards of $30,000 per annum. They provide an annual stipend of $25,000, a research allowance of $4,000, and a travel budget of $1,000. No part of this award may be used for institutional overhead, or for tuition. Institutions may supplement stipends, but not with other full-time fellowship awards or other NJCSCR monies. Applicants may serve as teaching assistants while holding a NJCSCR Graduate Student Fellowship without special permission. Second year Graduate Student Fellowship funding is contingent upon the successful review of the Progress Report and a recommendation from the mentor.

Successful applicants are offered the opportunity to participate in an approved spinal cord injury techniques course. The NJCSCR will make available up to $4,000 for a grantee to attend a spinal cord injury techniques courses. The institution is responsible for making all necessary travel and course participation arrangements and payments. Reimbursements will be made to those who provide proof of course completion and expense receipts.
