It's an honor ...

Soldiers and Airmen of the New Jersey National Guard, from left to right, Staff Sgt. James Linnus, Senior Master Sgt. Paul Thompson, Master Sgt. Earnest Williams, Master Sgt. Christopher Schmidt, Staff Sgts. Frank Dobos and Anthony Seay, Senior Airman Omar Navarro, Sgt. 1st Class Glenn Jensen, Master Sgt. Bobbi Panger and Staff Sgt. Armando Vasquez, pose with Medal of Honor recipient Staff Sgt. Salvatore Giunta, center, as part of the New York Jets 11th annual Military Appreciation Day on Nov. 21, 2010. At both the game's beginning and halftime show, Soldiers, Airmen, Sailors, Marines and Coast Guardsmen unfurled a massive flag on the field. F-16 Fighting Falcons from the 177th Fighter Wing performed a flyover at the beginning of the game. In addition, a ceremony in honor of Giunta, the first living recipient of the Medal of Honor since three service members from the Vietnam War were honored in 1976, was held. Also in attendance was Chief Master Sgt. of the Air Force James A. Roy. Photo by Master Sgt. Mark C. Olsen, 177FW/PA.

By Sgt. Wayne Woolley, DMAVA Public Affairs

Attention veterans of ongoing and recent conflicts: Uncle Sam may owe you money, but the clock is ticking.

Military members who were involuntarily extended under "stop-loss" between Sept. 11, 2001, and Sept. 30, 2009 are eligible for special pay of $500 for each month served under stop-loss status.

The original deadline for claims was Oct. 21, but it has been extended to Dec. 3.

Although the Department of Defense estimates that nearly 150,000 people were eligible for the benefit, few than half that number had applied by the end of last month.

It was for that reason that several lawmakers including U.S. Sen. Frank Lautenberg (D-N.J.) created a $534 million supplemental funding bill to ensure the money is available for everyone eligible for the benefit and to extend the application deadline. President Obama signed the legislation on Oct. 1.

To further raise awareness in New Jersey, Assemblyman Reed Gusciora (D-Mercer County) and Senator Shirley Turner (D-Mercer County) introduced legislation to recognize Lautenberg for his work on the issue.

Added Joint Base Security Coming

Security measures at Joint Base-McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst are about to be stepped up. To access the base after Dec. 31, register as soon as possible for the Defense Biometrics Identification System. Bring your driver's license and identification card. Here are the registration locations, days and times. McGuire Welcome Center; every day, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Dix Welcome Center; Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Lakehurst Welcome Center; Monday through Friday, 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

ODDS AND ENDS

Test your Christmas Tree Knowledge

Now that the holiday season is upon us, it's time for a little Christmas tree trivia.

- The first decorated Christmas tree was in Riga, Latvia in 1510.
- The first printed reference to Christmas trees appeared in Germany in 1531.
- Using small candles to light a Christmas tree dates back to the middle of the 17th century.
- In 1856 Franklin Pierce, the 14th president, was the first president to place a Christmas tree in the White House.
- Thomas Edison's assistant, Edward Johnson, came up with the idea of electric lights for Christmas Trees in 1882. They were first mass produced in 1890.
- In 1900, large stores started to erect big illuminated Christmas trees.
- Teddy Roosevelt banned the Christmas tree from the White House for environmental reasons.
- President Coolidge started the National Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony on the White House lawn in 1923
- In 1970 the National Christmas Tree was not lighted except for the top ornament. This was done to honor the American Hostages in Iran.
- In the 1930's, the Addis Brush Company created the first artificial trees, using the same machinery that made their toilet brushes! The Addis 'Silver Pine' tree was patented in 1950.
- Artificial tree will last for six years in your home, but for centuries in a landfill.
- Artificial tree are just as flammable as a properly cared for real tree (even the fire retardant ones).
- You should never burn your Christmas tree in the fireplace. it can contribute to creosote buildup.
- Christmas trees take four to 15 years to mature to a height of 6 to 7 feet. The average is seven years years.
- Ninety-eight percent of all Christmas trees are grown on farms. Around 50 million new Christmas trees will be planted this year.
- On average, 2,000 trees are usually planted per acre. Only about 1,000 to 1,500 of the trees survive. Almost all trees require shearing to attain the Christmas tree shape.
- In the U.S., there are more than 13,300 Christmas tree growers. There are more than 800,000 acres planted in Christmas trees, with 17,415,900 trees sold last year.
- In 2007, 18.8 million trees were sold; 24 percent were sold from chain stores, 18 percent by non-profit groups, 7 percent from retail lots, 11 percent from garden centers and 31 percent from choose and cut farms.
- The top six Christmas tree producing states are Oregon, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Washington and Wisconsin.

Va Offers 'Vet Handbook'

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs is piloting new, personalized Veterans Health Benefits Handbooks. The handbooks are tailored to provide enrolled Veterans with the most relevant health benefits information based on their own specific eligibility. In essence, each handbook will be written for the individual Veteran.

"These handbooks will give Veterans everything they need to know and leave out everything that doesn't apply to them," said Secretary of Veterans Affairs Eric K. Shinseki. "Our Veterans will now have a comprehensive, easy to understand roadmap to the medical benefits they earned with their service."

In addition to highlighting each Veteran's specific health benefits, the handbook also provides contact information for the Veteran's preferred local facility, ways to schedule personal appointments, guidelines for communicating treatment needs and an explanation of the Veteran's responsibilities, such as copayments when applicable.

"Enhancing access isn't just about expanding the kinds of services VA provides. It also includes making sure we do everything we can to ensure Veterans have a clear understanding of the benefits available to them so they can make full use of the services they have earned," Shinseki said.

The new handbooks will initially be available only to certain Veterans in Cleveland and Washington, D.C., areas. Following the pilot phase, full implementation is scheduled to begin in the fall of 2011 for across the county.

For additional information, go to www.va.gov/healtheligibility or call VA's toll-free number at 1-877-222-VETS (8387).

Military mentors wanted

The National Guard Bureau is looking for military officers (O-1 through O-4) to be Mentors for the 2011 Senate Youth Program. The program, instituted in 1962 by U.S. Senate Resolution and held annually in Washington, DC, is designed to give the nation's top-rated high school seniors a working knowledge of American politics through personal interaction with high-level government agencies and officials. Military Mentors serve as counselors, facilitators and role models for the 104 students (two from each state and territory), giving them a better understanding of defense missions, personnel and lifestyle. For more information about the program, visit the U.S. Senate Youth Program website at <http://www.ussenateyouth.org>.

Military Mentor officers who are selected must be on Permissive TDY or leave status for the duration of the program to include two days of pre-program training. Inclusive dates of the program 3-12 March 2011 (Senior and Assistant Senior Mentor Officers will be required to attend additional days of training beginning on Monday, 28 February.)

The Hearst Foundation, which sponsors the program, will pay for lodging, meals, and incidental costs such as laundry and dry-cleaning.

Officers who have participated in the past are eligible and encouraged to participate in the 2011 program. The volunteer Military Mentors are responsible for their own transportation costs to get to and from Washington, DC.

TO APPLY: Carefully read the Senate Youth Program Military Mentor Information and Nomination documents. The second and third pages of the attachment explain the criteria for Military Mentor officers and Senior Mentors and explain in detail exactly how to assemble a Nomination Package.

The Senior and Assistant Senior Mentor slots will be filled by volunteers who have served as a Senate Youth Mentor in a previous year.

Two key items in the nomination package to ensure are correct:

1) The Military supervisor letter of recommendation must contain a

Statement that, if selected, the nominee will be available to participate in all Senate Youth program functions from 3 - 12 March, which includes the required two days of Mentor training. That letter can be addressed to Ms. Peg Moffett, National Guard Bureau Public Affairs.

2) The second item that is frequently not fulfilled correctly is the required photograph. Ensure that your photo is a full-length pose and you are in Service Dress. It does not need to be a professional "official" military photo; it does need to be detailed and large enough to determine military appearance.

DEADLINE: Nomination packages must be submitted electronically to Margaret.Moffett@us.army.mil no later than Dec. 14. If you have any questions, please contact Peg for further information via e-mail or at DSN 327-2614 (Commercial: 703-607-2614).

The final selection of Mentor Officers and Senior Mentor Officers will take place by Jan. 21, 2011.

Dearden retires

When Barbara Dearden, left, began her DMAVA career on Oct. 25, 1972, the agency was simply called the New Jersey Department of Defense. As the years passed and the agency's name changed, Dearden's role with the agency grew. She rose from clerk stenographer to secretarial assistant, then the first supervisor and manager of the MIS Word Processing Center for Department-wide clerical support. In a later role as State Telecom Manager, she coordinated telecommunications support for the New Jersey National Guard and Department response to the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and implemented the modernization of the Department's phone systems. In 2003 she was appointed Chief of the Administrative Services Bureau in the Information and Administrative Services Division, a position she held until her retirement last month. At right, Dearden receives recognition for her service from The Adjutant General, Maj. Gen. Glenn K. Rieth.

State Family Readiness Council Benefit concert set for Dec. 12

Get ready to see some amazing dance performances and a great family day to enjoy the holidays – and support the troops all at the same time.

It's the Holiday Show on Dec. 12 to benefit the National Guard State Family Readiness Council. The benefit show kicks off at 3 p.m. at Lawrence High School, 2525 Princeton Pike and it's brought to you by Innovative Dance Academy with special performances by Synergy and Dance on Q of South Brunswick.

Besides the dance performances, there will be the opportunity for photographs and face time with Santa as well as an opportunity to send a holiday greeting to a Soldier or Airman.

Tickets are $10 for adults, $7 for students and $5 for children and students. Call 609-865-9527 or 609-538-0979 or email soldierbenefit@aol.com for ticket availability and information.

It's nearly time to Wassail

Mark your calendars DMAVA employees, it's time to Wassail on Tuesday, Dec. 12 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Share in the holiday treats, do some decorating with your colleagues and maybe even join in a rousing rendition of the Hippopotamus song.

The celebration itself dates back to 15th century England or earlier and it is a tradition meant to celebrate and promote health, wealth and good fortune.

The history of the Hippopotamus song is a little more recent. According to Wikipedia.com, Songwriter John Rox wrote "I Want a Hippopotamus For Christmas" and the song became a national sensation in 1953 after Gayla Peevey, a popular child singer in Oklahoma City recorded the song. Not only did the song hit the top of the charts, a local promoter launched a campaign to present Peevey with a hippopotamus, which she donated to the city zoo. The beast was named Matilda and lived for nearly 50 years.

So with all that tradition behind us, it's time for Wassailing 2010.
