Maj. Gen. Rieth selected to influential board

Secretary of Defense, Leon E. Panetta, appointed Maj. Gen. Glenn K. Rieth to an influential board that advises the Pentagon on matters involving the military reserves.

Rieth, who is the adjutant general of New Jersey National Guard, was appointed to the Reserve Forces Policy Board effective Oct. 13.

As adjutant general, Rieth serves as both the commander of the 8,400 Soldiers and Airmen of the New Jersey Army and Air National Guard and as the Commissioner of the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs.

He is the only National Guard representative on the board.

According to the Department of Defense, the RFPB serves as an independent adviser to provide advice and recommendations directly to the secretary of defense on strategies, policies, and practices designed to improve and enhance the capabilities, efficiency, and effectiveness of the reserve components.

Other new board members are: retired Vice Adm. John G. Cotton, former chief of Navy Reserve; Grier Martin, a member of the North Carolina General Assembly; Paulette M. Mason, Delaware chair, Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve; John Nagl, president of the Center for a New American Security; Sergio A. Pecori, president and chief executive officer of Hanson Professional Services Inc.; Gary E. (Gene) Taylor, former U.S. representative; retired Maj. Gen. Leo V. Williams III, former deputy commanding general, Marine Corps Combat Development Command; Maria J. Vorel, disaster operations coordinator, Federal Emergency Management Agency; and retired Gen. John W. Handy, former commander of U.S. Transportation Command and Air Mobility Command.

These members join the following current members: retired Maj. Gen. Arnold L. Punaro, chairman; Rear Adm. Steven E. Day; Maj. Gen. H. Michael Edwards; Maj. Gen. Anita R. Gallentine; Brig. Gen. James M. Lariviere; Maj. Gen. James N. Stewart (non-voting); Maj. Gen. Jeffrey W. Talley; and Maj. Gen. R. Martin Umbarger.

Combined Federal Campaign celebrates 50th anniversary

The New Jersey National Guard Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) has officially kicked off its 2011 campaign which will run until Nov. 30.

This year's campaign marks the 50th Anniversary of the CFC, one of the most effective and efficient channels for philanthropic giving. The CFC gives federal workers an accountable, flexible way to make meaningful differences in the world by providing a wide range of donation options.

There are nearly 3,000 local, national and international agencies listed in this year's brochure. Contributions may be made by payroll deductions – the easiest way to give or make a one-time gift to the charity of your choice.

Over the years, the New Jersey National Guard's CFC has been most successful in this endeavor because of the personal generosity and concerns of its members. Every employee is urged to support this worthy cause. Catalogs and payroll deduction forms will be going out to all full time federal technicians and AGRs.

The CFC coordinator for this year's Combined Federal Campaign is Jo Anne Miller, of the J1-HRO Office. For more information, please call 609-562-0851.

GT enhancement course available to New Jersey National Guard Soldiers

The New Jersey Army National Guard Recruiting and Retention Command has developed an education course which allows Soldiers to increase their education level. It is called the General Technical (GT) Enhancement Course.

This week-long course focuses on both Math and English and is taught at the National Guard Training Center in Sea Girt. It is given quarterly and has approximately 10-15 students per class. It was developed as an effort to assist Soldiers who need a boost in order to make it to the next level. Some Soldiers aspire to become officers, while others may just want to make a career change. This course was directly responsible for at least 12 percent of the officer production mission. Future dates for this course are Dec. 12-18; Feb. 6-12, 2012 and June 25 – July 1, 2012.

If you are looking for this great opportunity, contact a recruiter near you for more details.
