Web Response

I moved to this town in 2005, in part with the belief that there was potential for growth and development by way of new businesses coming to town, shopping centers to be developed, etc all of which would have a positive impact on the value of our real estate. However, this has never happened due to the impact of the Highlands Act. The economy and fall in real estate values was bad enough, but with the Highland Act there is no possibility of any growth to come to this town.
