DHS Consortium: Enhanced Sports & Special Events Incident Management

The New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness and the New Jersey State Athletic Control Board will be sponsoring a three-day training program titled: "Enhanced Sports & Special Events Incident Management" (MGT 440). The program will be instructed by The Texas Engineering Extension Service (TEEX), a member of the National Domestic Preparedness Consortium (NDPC).

The training will be held at the Hughes Justice Complex, located at 25 Market Street, Trenton, NJ 08625. There is NO COST to participate.

Enhanced Sports & Special Events Incident Management (MGT-440)

May 17, 18, & 19, 2016 8:00AM to 5:00PM

This course emphasizes the unique aspects of response to an incident occurring during a sports/special event, including considerations for business continuity and after-action activities. This course is a scenario-based workshop focusing on incident management, crowd and evacuation management, and risk management. The course is intended to prepare for the response to a large-scale incident during sporting or special events. Participants will engage in three, simulation-supported, emergency response exercises designed to hone individual and team decision-making and management skills.

Registration

All participants must have a FEMA Student Identification Number (SID). To create, retrieve or for additional information, visit: <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid/>

Spaces are limited and preregistration is required. For your convenience, an online registration is available at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/NJSPORTSTEEX>.
