Content Note

The Public Records Office was established by the New Jersey Legislature on 26 March 1920 to examine the condition of public records throughout the state and to "acquire, preserve, classify and collate official records, letters and other material bearing upon the history of the government and the people of New Jersey" (P.L. 1920, chap. 46, p. 93). This series consists of published material relating to public records in New Jersey, including two reports which predate the creation of the Public Records Office. Also included are twenty circular letters from the Public Records Office issued during the period 1920-1940, reporting new regulations or legislation.
