

New Jersey History, founded as the Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society in 1845 was published under the direction of the Society until 2005. It has been re-launched under the editorial direction of Dr. Peter Mickulas, the New Jersey Historical Commission, Kean University, and the Society. New Jersey History is a peer-reviewed journal to be published online twice a year by the Rutgers University Libraries. It is also supported by the New Jersey Digital Highway to enable additional website access, and to digitally preserve the journal via the RUcore preservation platform. Marketing provided by Rutgers University Press will expand the journal's reach.

The editorial staff invites scholars, students, and writers to submit scholarly articles aimed at a non-specialized audience for its forthcoming issues. We welcome essays from all disciplines—for example, law, literature, political science, anthropology, archaeology, material culture, cultural studies, and social and political history-bearing on any aspects of New Jersey's history. We are also interested in documents, photographs, and other primary source material that could be published with annotations. For further details visit the journal homepage.
