

Directions to Nassau Inn from Newark Liberty International Airport using Public Transportation

Upon arrival to the United States' Newark Liberty International Airport (EWR) in New Jersey, you should clear customs and immigration, and then proceed to exit the secure area into the "Arrivals" level of the terminal.

From here you can take New Jersey Transit's AirTrain to the Newark Airport Station of the Northeast Corridor line. More information can be found at http://www.njtransit.com/rg/rg_servlet.srv?hdnPageAction=AirportConnectionsTo.

From Newark Airport, board any NJ Transit train heading towards Trenton.

Before boarding the train, look for either a NJ Transit booth or a NJ Transit self-serve ticket machine, and purchase your ticket to Princeton Junction. You may also purchase your ticket from the conductor when on the train at an extra charge. Keep in mind tickets can only be purchased with cash once aboard the train.

Once at Princeton Junction, you can either:

- a) Take a taxi cab to the Nassau Inn (10 Palmer Square, Princeton, NJ 08542). You can use a pay telephone at the train station to call Triple A Taxi (telephone: 800-481-8294 or 609-921-1177) or the Princeton Taxi Stand (telephone: 609-924-1222). The fare is between $10 and $12, plus tip. Note: It is advisable to verify the fare before entering the taxi.

Or:

- b) Board the Princeton Shuttle train (also known as “the Dinky”), which will take you non-stop to the Princeton Borough train station, which borders Princeton University. Tickets may be purchased at Princeton Junction Station or from a ticket machine on the platform. A one-way ticket costs $1.50. Please note that a one-way ticket purchased from the conductor aboard the Dinky costs $4.50. Prices are subject to change. From the Princeton Borough Station, you may either take a taxi (there is a taxi stop at the station), or you may walk: It is a quick, 10 to 15-minute walk to the Nassau Inn. The map is below:
