

Pretty Big Things Scavenger Hunt

Find the objects from the exhibition that best answer the questions below:

1. The furniture industry is very important to New Jersey and there are several examples in the exhibition. Find three different pieces and indicate which style of furniture they represent:
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.

2. Ceramics can be both useful (utilitarian) and decorative. Find five pieces of ceramics and indicate whether they are simply decorative or if they were utilitarian. If they were utilitarian, how were they used?
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.
  - d.
  - e.

3. The Atlantic Ocean and coastal areas provide the natural resources to support a large maritime industry. Find three objects that are connected to the maritime industry, are they still used today?
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.

Pretty Big Things Scavenger Hunt

4. From corn to cows, agriculture is an important industry in New Jersey. Find two objects that were used by farmers in New Jersey.
  - a.
  - b.
5. Industries rely on innovation. Find three objects that were invented in New Jersey. What purpose did they serve?
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.
6. The iron industry blossomed because of ample resources in New Jersey. Find two objects connected to the iron industry:
  - a.
  - b.
7. Some objects represent inventions that were designed to make life easier in the 18th to 20th centuries. Find three objects that represent inventions that made the lives of people easier or more enjoyable:
  - a.
  - b.
  - c.