The NJ State Council on the Arts will convene a public business meeting on Thursday, May 23rd at 11:00am at the Bergen Performing Arts Center in Englewood. The meeting agenda will include reports from the committees that have met recently, including the Arts Education Committee which will highlight the achievements of the past month and put forward its recommendations for support of key arts education programs. The Grants Committee will present its recommendations for the award of any remaining FY2013 funds.

The New Jersey State Council on the Arts is a division of the NJ Department of State. It receives funding in direct appropriations from the State of New Jersey through a dedicated Hotel/Motel Occupancy fee and grants from the National Endowment for the Arts. Since 1966, its volunteer members and professional staff have worked to improve the quality of life in New Jersey by helping the arts to flourish.
