

Licensing and Registration: Increases to Fees Effective September 21, 2026

In accordance with R.2026 d.102, N.J.A.C. 14:4 has been readopted with amendments. As a result, Licensing and Registration fees have increased. See chart below for updated fee amounts effective 9/21/2026.

N.J.A.C. 14:4-5.12 Fees

(a) Fees for license applications and registrations shall include both refundable and nonrefundable components as follows:

	Electric Power Supplier License	Gas Supplier License	Energy Agent, Private Aggregator, and/or Energy Consultant Registration
Nonrefundable Initial Application Fee	$350	$350	$750
Initial License Fee refunded if license is denied	$1,500	$1200	$0
Nonrefundable Annual Information Update Fee	$750	$600	$300

(b) If an applicant applies for more than one license, the applicant shall submit the application fees for both licenses. For example, the total application fee when applying for both an electric power supplier license and a gas supplier license would be $ 3,400. Similarly, an applicant that applies for more than one license shall post a separate surety bond for each license as required at N.J.A.C. 14:4-5.4(f). For registrants, the application fee remains the same if an applicant applies for one, two, or all three registrations. For example, an initial fee for an Energy Agent would be $ 750 and the initial fee for an Energy Agent and Energy Consultant would be $ 750 as well.
