Megan Tagliaferri

DIRECTOR, LICENSING
NEW JERSEY CANNABIS REGULATORY COMMISSION

Megan Tagliaferri has over 20 years of experience in State system management, procurement, process planning, operations, and project improvement.

Currently, Megan serves as the Director in the Office of Licensing at the New Jersey Cannabis Regulatory Commission. Since February 2022, she has been responsible for the application and licensure processes for New Jersey's cannabis industry. Her role includes overseeing the acceptance, review, and processing of all application types from initial submission through recommendation for approval to licensure and maintenance of a license, including renewals and updates. Additionally, Megan oversees all aspects of the licensing portal and procurement related matters.

Megan held multiple roles at the Division of Purchase & Property within the New Jersey Department of Treasury, culminating in her role as Assistant Director. In that role, she managed the Professional and Environmental Services Unit, overseeing staff training, bid evaluations, and process improvement. She also held previous positions at the New Jersey Schools Development Authority, where she managed procurement processes and ensured compliance.

Megan holds a Bachelor of Arts in English from The College of New Jersey. Her dedication to professional excellence and her ability to build strong working relationships have earned her the NJ Treasurer's Award for customer service excellence, innovation, and initiative.
