Senior Correctional Police Officer	Lashay	Griffin	No	No	Yes	90	NA	No	NJAC 4a:2-2.3(a) General Causes (1) Incompetency, inefficiency or failure to perform duties (6) Conduct unbecoming a public employee (7) Neglect of duty (12) Other Sufficient Cause HRB 84-17, as amended B2 - Neglect of duty, loafing, idleness or willful failure to devote attention to tasks which could result in danger to persons or property B8 - Serious mistake due to carelessness which may result in danger and/or injury to persons or property B9 - Incompetence or inefficiency C8 - Falsification: intentional misstatement of material fact in connection with work, employment application, attendance or in any record, report, investigation or other proceeding C11 - Conduct Unbecoming an employee D1- Negligence in performing duty resulting in injury to persons or property D7 - Violation of administrative procedures and/or regulations involving safety and security D9 - Failure to report injury, abuse, or accident involving incarcerated persons, residents, patients, or clients.	On 11/12/23, an incarcerated person was splashed with an unknown substance by two other incarcerated individuals at New Jersey State Prison, resulting in significant burns to his arms, face, and body. The incarcerated person was subsequently admitted to the Intensive Care Unit/Burn Unit at St. Barnebas Medical Center in Livingston. Although injuries were inflicted on 11/12/23, at approximately 8:54 a.m., he was not taken out of his cell or provided with medical assistance until the following day, 11/13/23, at approximately 7:15 a.m. Senior Correctional Police Officer (SCPO) Lashay Griffin was responsible for count of the injured incarcerated person's unit at the time the individual was splashed. SCPO Griffin admittedly failed to tour the unit on 11/12/23. She claimed that she did not tour the unit during second shift because the unit was unsafe as a result of malfunctioning cell doors, which was reported to her supervisors; however, SCPO Griffin was not ordered to refrain from tours/counts during her shift on that date. Despite signing Count Slips, SCPO Griffin admitted that she did not conduct count at 2:20 p.m., 4:00 p.m., or 7:00 p.m. and that she falsified paperwork stating that the counts were conducted. Further, although she stated that a count was not conducted because she was concerned with her safety, SCPO Griffin failed to notify a supervisor that the count was not being conducted on that shift. SCPO Griffin also admitted during the course of the investigation that she was unaware of any injury to an incarcerated person earlier on the night of 11/12/23. She admitted that she failed to tour the unit during her shift and failed to notice any injuries to an incarcerated person or call a Code-33. SCPO Griffin signed a settlement agreement for a 90-day suspension on 11/12/23.

(6) Conduct	On 3/9/25, a physical altercation occurred between two incarcerated persons in a cell on the 7 UP housing unit of New Jersey State Prison. Senior Correctional Police Officer (SCPO) Joshua Hagwood reported to the tier but failed to activate his body worn camera. When he secured the incarcerated persons, he failed to use mechanical restraints. During the investigation into the physical altercation, SCPO Hagwood provided inconsistent statements to the Special Investigations Divisions and his supervisors. Specifically, when interviewed by SID, SCPO Hagwood stated that he reported to his supervisor that two incarcerated persons were in a cell together but he did not see any fighting. When his supervisors were interviewed by SID, they stated that they were told by SCPO Hagwood that the incarcerated persons may have grabbed one another through the cell door bars. SCPO Hagwood signed a settlement agreement for a 30-day suspension on 11/24/25.

On 11/12/23, an incarcerated person was splashed with an unknown substance by two other incarcerated individuals at New Jersey State Prison, resulting in significant burns to his arms, face, and body. The incarcerated person was subsequently admitted to the Intensive Care Unit/Burn Unit at St. Barnebas Medical Center in Livingston. Although the individual's injuries were inflicted on 11/12/23 at approximately 8:54 a.m., he was not taken out of his cell or provided with medical assistance until the following day, 11/13/23, at approximately 7:15 a.m. Senior Correctional Police Officer (SCPO) Gulbrani Khan worked the housing unit on third shift on 11/12 into 11/13/23. A review of institutional surveillance revealed that on 11/12/23, SCPO Khan reported to the unit at 9:43 p.m. and conducted his initial count at approximately 9:50 p.m. and visited the length of the tier. SCPO Khan entered the tier again at 10:43 p.m. but did not visit the length of the tier, stopping two cells from the injured incarcerated person. He entered the tier again at 12:31 a.m., 2:58 a.m., and 5:04 a.m. During his last tour, SCPO Khan stopped in front of the incarcerated person's cell at approximately 5:07 a.m. and stood in front of the cell, where the cell light was turned on. At approximately 5:08 a.m., SCPO Khan walked away from the cell. At no time did SCPO Khan call for a supervisor or for medical attention, nor did he call a Code-53 for a medical emergency. During the course of the investigation, SCPO Khan could not recall the nature of any conversation he had with the injured incarcerated person during his tour at 5:07 a.m. or at any time during his shift. On 11/13/24, SCPO Khan was shown pictures of injuries to the incarcerated person, and he denied being aware of them during his
