Subject to current promotional and hiring restrictions ☐ State employees who are permanent in a competitive title or a Civil Service Commission-approved non-competitive title. Subject to current promotional and hiring restrictions ☒ Interested individuals who meet the stated requirements
JOB DESCRIPTION Under the direction of the supervisor of chaplaincy services, or other supervisory officials in a state department, institution, or agency, coordinates and provides spiritual and religious services to residents, incarcerated individuals, and employees of ALL faiths and denominations; does other related duties as required. More specifically, the Chaplain will be required to preside over the worship service, for which they are properly trained and credentialed. Additionally, when Chaplains are not trained or credentialed in a specific faith denomination, they will be required to visually supervise the incarcerated population when they are permitted to gather for self-led services. NOTE: The services of the incumbent in this position will be predominantly available for incarcerated individuals within an institution; however, they may be extended to the employees in extreme circumstances as deemed appropriate. NOTE: This position requires one late day per week from 11am to 7pm. Some weekend and religious holiday covering may be required. This position requires travel between Edna Mahan Correctional Facility and their Satellite location. Telework is not available for this position.
REQUIREMENTS EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college, university, or seminary with a bachelor's degree. NOTE: Graduation from a course of theological study as required by the ordaining or endorsing body. EXPERIENCE: Two (2) years of experience as a minister, priest, rabbi, imam, or deacon in the offices of a religious faith, which shall have included religious, personal, and social counseling, with one (1) year of supervised pastoral counseling (such as clinical pastoral education) in an institutional setting. NOTE: Applicants who do not possess the required degree may substitute additional experience as indicated above on a year-for-year basis. NOTE: A Master of Divinity Studies or similar programs may be substituted for one (1) year of relevant experience. LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess certification or accreditation as a minister, priest, rabbi, imam, or deacon in an established religious faith, and an endorsement for chaplaincy where required by the ordaining or endorsing body. LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a New Jersey driver's license only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position. Credentials will be examined in the context of the Chaplain candidate's faith denomination.
