

Prisoner Re-entry Education Program

Mission

The mission of the prisoner re-entry education program is to educate and inform prisoners preparing for release from a correctional facility about their tax responsibilities.

Benefits

- Refunds – you have up to three years to file a claim for a refund
- Tax Credits – even if you don't make enough money to pay taxes, you might still qualify for a refund
- Proof of Income – filing your tax return is important if you want to rent a house or apartment or apply for a loan
- Social Security – to qualify for benefits, Social Security needs a record of your work history
- Peace of Mind – file your taxes and have one less thing to worry about

Free Help Filing Your Return

- Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) – IRS-certified volunteers receive training to prepare basic tax returns in communities across the country. To locate a VITA site near you, go to www.irs.gov and search: VITA, or call 1-800-906-9887
- Tax-Aide – Trained and certified AARP Tax-Aide volunteers help people of low-to-middle income, with special attention to those age 60 and older. To locate the nearest AARP Tax-Aide site, call 1-888-227-7669 or use the Tax-Aide Locator at www.aarp.org
- Free File – It's fast, safe and free. Let Free File do the hard work for you with brand-name software or online Fillable Forms. You can prepare and e-file your federal return for free. Participating software companies make their products available through the IRS. Some also support state tax returns. Go to www.irs.gov/freefile to get started.

Tax Credits

- Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) Find out if you are eligible for this valuable credit by using the EITC Assistant at www.irs.gov search: EITC. Amounts received for work performed while an inmate in a penal institution, in a work release program or while in a halfway house are not earned income when figuring this credit.
- Other benefits – Information about how to learn more about the child tax credit and other credits, benefits and free services can be found in Publication 910, IRS Guide to Free Tax Services

Taxes and Jobs

- If you work for someone else, you can use the Withholding Calculator on www.irs.gov to help you complete Form W-4. That way, you'll avoid having too much or too little tax withheld from your pay.
- If you are interested in starting your own business, the IRS has many informative videos available at www.irsvideos.gov. Select the "Small Biz Workshop" on the Small Businesses tab.
- Self-employed/independent contractors generally are required to file a tax return every year and pay estimated taxes. See Publications 334, Tax Guide for Small Business and 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, for more information.

Tax Avoidance Schemes

Participating in an illegal scheme to avoid paying taxes can result in imprisonment, fines, and the repayment of taxes owed plus penalties and interest. If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is. Find more information at www.irs.gov search: tax scams.

What to do if You Owe Taxes

- You should file all tax returns that are due, regardless of whether or not you can pay in full with your return. Depending on your circumstances, you may qualify for a payment plan. In many cases, filing late can result in avoidable penalties, costing you more money. If you haven't filed, go to www.irs.gov for more information about payment options or to set up a payment arrangement. You can also visit your nearest Taxpayer Assistance Center or call the IRS toll-free at 1-800-829-1040
- Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITC) – Available to eligible low income or English as a second language (ESL) taxpayers seeking assistance with IRS audits, appeals and collection disputes including representation before the IRS. For specific requirements and locations in your state go to www.irs.gov search: LITC assistance
- Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) – Your voice at the IRS. Call TAS if you're having economic problems, if you need help resolving an IRS problem, or you believe an IRS system or procedure isn't working as it should. Call toll-free at 1-877-777-4778 or go to www.TaxpayerAdvocate.irs.gov
