SUBJECT: In the Matter of C.C., Department of Human Services
(CSC, decided October 21, 2020); CSC Docket No. 2021-143

In response to P.L. 2013, chapter 259, which now requires all Civil Service Commission decisions to be published on its website, and in an effort to preserve confidentiality and privacy of individuals involved in certain types of sensitive appeal matters, initials have been used to protect, among others, the identity of the appellant. Please be advised that the appellant's name is Christopher Cammarata. Additionally, this memorandum is not part of the decision, will not be placed on the website and has only been supplied to the parties listed at the end of the decision for informational purposes. Please also note that the agenda and meeting minutes of the Civil Service Commission will contain only the appellant's initials.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
