For Immediate Release:

New Jersey Civil Service Commission Issues 2023 Law Enforcement Examination Announcement

TRENTON - The New Jersey Civil Service Commission (CSC) issued examination announcements for Entry Level Law Enforcement (LEE) titles for several jurisdictions on March 1, 2023. The LEE assesses applicant readiness for entry into law enforcement titles considered to have common knowledge, skills, abilities, and other characteristics.

The following LEE titles were announced:

- Correctional Police Officer (Department of Corrections) *
- County Correctional Police Officer
- Municipal Police Officer
- Parole Officer Recruit*
- Sheriff's Officer

*State Title

The March 2023 LEE provides municipalities, counties and State departments with announcements specific to their jurisdiction and title(s) used. Applicants must file a separate application to indicate their interest in the examination for a particular jurisdiction and title.

Bilingual in Spanish and English will be available, by symbol, for some of the titles listed above. To apply for a bilingual position, you must complete an application for the specific bilingual announcement for the title. Candidates for Bilingual positions will be tested at the time of certification for proficiency in Spanish.

"My team and I are pleased to announce the 2023 Law Enforcement Examination," said Allison Chris Myers, Acting Chair/CEO of the New Jersey Civil Service Commission. "The LEE exam has the largest applicant population out of all the exams administered by CSC. This pool of candidates truly illustrates the importance of representation in New Jersey's law enforcement sector and reflects the diversity that we find in both our civil service workforce and the communities we serve. Because of this, we will continue to work diligently to support and advance New Jersey's current and future law enforcement professionals by encouraging diversity, equity, and inclusion in law enforcement hiring practices."

The examination announcements and applications will be available on the New Jersey Civil Service Commission website <https://nj.gov/csc> from March 1, 2023 to March 31, 2023 at 4:00pm.
