

The Training Post -Winter 2022 QC Responses

Question Corner: What are you looking forward to this winter?

Every winter, I look forward to spring - colorful flowers, warmer weather and "longer" days.

Jackie Chadwick

Jacqueline.Chadwick@doh.nj.gov

DOH

I am looking forward to 'Soup Season'!

Anshu Sinha

anshu.sinha@dep.nj.gov

DEP

Getting some sort of normalcy back, if it still exist after Covid-19, Delta and Omicron. Will Covid be the new norm, overtaking the flu.

Hermean Matthews

hermean.matthews@dot.nj.gov

DOT

lots of snowstorms

Carolyn Katz

carolyn.katz@jjc.nj.gov

JJC

Getting back on the mountain to ski with my family after many years of knee surgeries and recoveries!

Nicole Benowitz

nicole.benowitz@dol.nj.gov

DOL

Ice skating and/or skiing

Letitia Holloway-Owens

letitia.holloway@doh.nj.gov

DOH

I am looking forward to going to the vacation house with my nieces and helping them sleigh ride and ice skate in that private community. Hot Chocolate with marshmallows of course, Valentines sharing, with movies and warm fuzzy blankets with footed pajamas.

Lacey Bundschuh

lacey.bundschuh@DOH.NJ.GOV

DOH

Going snowboarding with my family for a couple of days and also cross country skiing by myself through the woods near my house....just need snow!

Kristin Rue

kristin.rue@ag.nj.gov

LPS

Reuniting with my immediate family and extended family for a long overdue holiday gathering.

Jean Donnelly

jean.donnelly@dol.nj.gov

DOL

Taking my children skiing in the Poconos

Jessica Guglich

guglichj@njdcj.org

LPS

Snow fall!

Hosea Mak

hosea.mak@doh.nj.gov

DOH

Nightfall after the snow has fallen, while it is still untouched, and the sky is clear. That's when the snow glistens and the world is peaceful, as though the stars are kissing the earth.

Nancy Nelson

nancy.nelson@opd.nj.gov

OPD/Monmouth

Spring

Unknown