BID SPECIFICATION CHALLENGES TO RFP FOR SUBSERVICING OF RESIDENTIAL FIRST MORTGAGES FOR THE REVENUE BOND PROGRAM AND THE POLICE AND FIRE RETIREMENT SYSTEM PROGRAM—ITEMS 11B AND 11C

Les Lefkowitz provided the following: On January 9, 2013, the Agency issued RFPs for Sub-Servicing of Residential First Mortgages for the Mortgage Revenue Bond Program and the Police and Fire Retirement System. In the RFPs, it was required that the sub-servicer currently be a HUD Tier I servicer. Three bidders submitted proposals in response to the RFPs. Only one of the bidders satisfied the HUD Tier I requirement. The two other bidders (Aurora Financial Group, Inc. and Dovenmuehle Mortgage Inc.) did not satisfy this requirement, but submitted bids in response to the RFPs. These two bids were rejected due to the bidders failure to satisfy the HUD Tier I requirement. It was also determined that the sole HUD Tier I servicer’s bid was defective for failure to properly complete the Ownership Disclosure Form. As a result, all bids were rejected.

On March 19, 2013, the Agency issued rebid RFPs for the same matters with a submission deadline of April 10, 2013. The Rebid RFPs also required that the sub-servicer currently be a HUD Tier I servicer. On April 1, 2013, prior to submitting a bid, Aurora filed the Protest Letters with the Agency challenging the HUD Tier 1 servicer bid specification in the Rebid RFPs. Aurora also requested that the Agency waive that specification as to Aurora only. The grounds for Aurora’s requests are set forth in the attachments to the RFA.

Staff implemented the HUD Tier 1 requirement because it is a reliable indicator of a servicer’s performance in delinquency mitigation, which is an essential element of a servicer’s qualifications.

The Final Agency Decisions proposed concludes that the HUD Tier I requirement is supportable for the reasons set forth in the FAD. It further provides that the Aurora’s challenges to bid specifications be denied, that the waiver requested be denied and no amendment of the Rebid RFPs is needed.

Agency staff recommends approval by the Agency of the actions requested, as described above, in the Request for Actions.
Gene Brown, Aurora Financial Group asked to address the Board. He stated that Aurora would have been a TIER I servicer if not for the state moratorium on foreclosures since 95% of the loans they service are New Jersey loans and 65% of the loans they service are HMFA loans. He further stated that the TIER 1 requirement was unfair since the loss mitigation tools changed in the last 6 months and HMFA was measuring their mitigation efforts on past performance.

Tom Hunt read the following into the minutes:
