

Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD)

Housing Development Needs

April 9, 2013

DDD

The Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) works with individuals, their families/guardians, developers, landlords, qualified service providers & other partners to provide housing options for people with developmental disabilities.

- ❑ High quality housing integrated into the community
- ❑ Statewide need
- ❑ Urban, suburban and rural settings

Statistics

- ~660 Individuals in DCs who are In Agreement to move into the community
 - About 230 of them have selected an agency
 - This leaves about 430 individuals looking for a placement
 - 143 have mobility challenges and require accessibility

Individuals in Agreement

- BEHAVIORAL
 - 171 have a behavioral level 3
 - 56 have mobility needs
 - 135 have high self care needs
 - 15 require nursing
 - 158 have a behavioral level 4
 - 15 have mobility needs
 - 77 have high self care needs
 - 19 require nursing

Individuals in Agreement

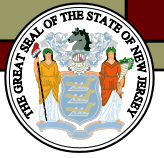

□ MEDICAL

- 46 have a need for On Site Nursing
 - 18 of the above have a behavioral level 3 or 4
 - 34 have a high self care need
 - 25 have challenges with mobility

Statistics Continued

- Geographic Preference
 - 173 indicate Statewide
 - 22 indicate Lower Central Region
 - 59 indicate Northern Region
 - 40 indicate Southern Region
 - 15 indicate Upper Central Region
 - 38 indicate more than 1 region
 - 80 have not selected a region

DDD – Special Needs CDBG-DR Priorities

- Olmstead and RHNJ
 - Priority on projects serving individuals from DCs slated for closure
- 4-bedroom community residences with accessibility
- Projects ready to proceed quickly

DDD – Special Needs CDBG-DR Priorities

- ❑ RLI for projects that will seek rental subsidy/service funding from DDD
 - ❑ Excellent service providers
 - ❑ Strong recent experience in development – or partnership with a developer
 - ❑ Ability to develop quickly
 - ❑ Willingness to accept groupings of individuals as referred by DDD
 - ❑ Leverage

Contact Information

Janel Winter

Director of Housing & Program Development

Division of Developmental Disabilities

609-584-1478

janel.winter@dhs.state.nj.us