

Seasonal Hiring

Apply by September 30, 2024 for consideration in October 2024 hiring round.

Application online: <https://dep.nj.gov/apply-for-seasonal-jobs/>

Position History Educator (Seasonal)

- Interpretation of historic and natural resources of State Historic Sites. Lead guided tours of historic houses and support interpretive programs and special events according to direction of professional interpretive staff.
- Open, close and operate State facilities including historic houses and interpretive center according to New Jersey code and policy.
- May support or lead special projects or assignments including historical research, program development or curatorial care of historic collections and resources according to direction of professional interpretive staff.
- Initial and ongoing training and development in historical interpretation according to guidance of professional interpretive staff.

Placement Wallace House & Old Dutch Parsonage State Historic Sites, 71 Somerset Street, Somerville, NJ 08876

- Wallace House: George Washington's winter headquarters for the Continental Army's Middlebrook Cantonment, 1778 – 1779
- Old Dutch Parsonage: historic home of the founder and first president of Queen's College, today Rutgers, the State University

Pay $16/hour

Schedule General availability Wednesday - Sunday, 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Specific days and hours may vary according to assignments and programming needs according to direction of professional interpretive staff and supervisors.

New Jersey is an Equal Opportunity Employer.