

Financial Literacy Series

Provided by

McGraw-Hill
Federal Credit Union
Financial Solutions
for a Lifetime

School Education Group

E³ = Educate. Enrich. Empower.™

New Jersey
Coalition For Financial Education

Get the resources and information you need to improve your level of financial literacy and your ability to teach personal finance. The seminars are open to all teachers, regardless of subject, and will cover material that fulfills Standards 9.2.12.C.1 - 9.2.12.C.8 Credit and Debit Management.

“How to Make the Grade When Calculating Your Credit Score”

Wednesday, May 4

4:30 - 6:30 pm

or

Tuesday, May 10

4:30 - 6:30 pm

Presenter: Cathyann Frank, McGraw-Hill FCU VP IT/Operations
Cathyann brings her high-energy, informative seminar to the Financial Literacy Series to help you learn how to best manage personal credit effectively.

Register today: <http://www.mcgrawhillfcu.org/educationseries>

Seating limited. Must register to attend. Includes Dinner, plenty of Free Parking, Free Sample Textbooks, & Giveaways. McGraw-Hill School Education Group representatives will be present to answer your questions.

All sessions are held at the McGraw-Hill Federal Credit Union
120 Windsor Center Drive, East Windsor, NJ 08520.

Contact Joy Beans at 1-800-226-6428, extension 6508 or jbeans@mcgrawhillfcu.org
Professional Development Certificate provided at the conclusion of the seminars.

The Financial Literacy Series is a collaborative effort and MHFCU would like to recognize the contributions and commitment of The New Jersey Department of Education and the New Jersey Coalition For Financial Education for their support in furthering this initiative.