

School Food Service Institute 2011

August 3 and 4, 2011
G.H. Cook Campus Center - New Brunswick, NJ

Institute 2011
In the Heat of Change!

Never have School Nutrition Programs been more in the forefront of national attention. Join us as we explore the changes and face up to challenges set before us to provide healthy, delicious, low cost meals to our state's children!

FEATURED TOPICS FOR 2011

(subject to change)

- Updates on the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act
- Success with the Healthier US School Challenge
- Making Cents Out of Commodities
- The "How To" of Produce:
Purchasing, Sourcing Local, Handling
- Meeting the Mark with Whole Grains
- Financial Success in School Nutrition
- Understanding Students' Food Allergies or Intolerances
- Implementing and/or Growing a School
Breakfast Program
- Exploring Vegetarian Options

SPONSORED BY:

New Jersey Department of Agriculture, Division of Food and Nutrition

ALSO INCLUDED:

- "School Foodservice 101" - for new Directors/Managers
- Sanitation exams - for Food Safety Certification

SAVE
THE DATE!

Join us for one or both days!

REGISTRATION FEES: $50 (both days); $30 (one day only)

Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

— FULL AGENDA COMING SOON —

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER VISIT: www.cpe.rutgers.edu/FSInstitute