Learning Resource Center - South (LRC-S) at Rowan University: Statewide Resources to Support Inclusive Education

The New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE), Office of Special Education, in partnership with the Learning Resource Center South (LRC-S) at Rowan University, is pleased to share a collection of free, high-quality inclusive education resources. These resources support educators, school leaders, related service providers, support staff, and families in creating environments where students from preschool to age 21 can thrive.

LRC-S offerings aim to strengthen inclusive practices and improve outcomes for all learners. Sample resources include:

- Professional Learning Opportunities
- New Teacher Hub
- Annual Inclusion Institute
- Curated Online Resources
- Monthly Instructional Themes
- Winter Family Engagement Events
- Library and eBook Resources

For additional information please visit the LRC-S website.

The LRC-South is part of the statewide LRC Network. For additional information please visit the LRC Network website.
