Advantages of JPEF E-learning include:

- Anytime, anywhere: Complete the E-Learning course wherever you have an internet connection—at home, at school, or even at the coffee shop.
- Self-paced: Allows you to stop at any time and continue at another time, resuming right where you left off.
- In class use: Integrate E-Learning courses into current Holocaust Education curriculum.

We currently offer five E-Learning courses ranging from Resistance Basics, an introduction to the partisans, to Teaching with Defiance, using the motion picture Defiance to teach about the partisans. Most courses can be completed in less than one hour.

"JPEF's E-Learning courses are very easy to follow. This is the first time I ever explored a website that is so educator friendly. I hope many more educators will find the treasure of resources I found from this experience."

During World War II, approximately 30,000 Jews fought back as partisans, armed resistance fighters. Many partisans were teens and they significantly impeded the German war efforts and saved thousands of lives. The Jewish Partisan Educational Foundation (JPEF) provides free multimedia curricula and professional development for 6th-12th grade educators.
