WILLIAM GOODE, JR.

BEFORE THE SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION

v.

MICHELLE BRATTOLI
LITTLE FERRY BOARD OF EDUCATION
BERGEN COUNTY

Docket. No. C21-14 FINAL DECISION

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

This matter arises from a complaint filed on May 14, 2014 by complainant, William Goode, Jr., alleging that respondent Michelle Brattoli, a member of the Little Ferry Board of Education (Board), violated the School Ethics Act (Act), N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et seq. By letters dated May 20, 2014 and July 10, 2014, the School Ethics Commission (Commission) acknowledged receipt of the complaint and deemed each attempt procedurally deficient. The complainant filed an amended complaint on July 30, 2014, resolving the procedural deficits, and specifically alleged that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), (e) and (j) of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members (Code).

On August 14, 2014, the respondent filed her Answer to the complaint, which included an allegation of frivolousness. By letter dated September 3, 2014, the Commission acknowledged receipt of the Answer and deemed it procedurally deficient for failure to provide proof of service. The respondent cured all defects on September 11, 2014. The complainant submitted his response to the allegation that the complaint was frivolous on October 2, 2014.

The parties were notified by letter dated October 10, 2014 that the Commission would consider this matter at its meeting on October 28, 2014 in accordance with N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.8. Therein, the parties were specifically advised that the Commission would take one of several actions: Decide to retain the complaint for a hearing by the Commission at a later date; decide to refer the matter to the Office of Administrative Law for a hearing; table the matter to request additional information or legal advice; or dismiss the complaint where the allegations in the complaint, on their face, were insufficient, even if true, to warrant review by the Commission as possible violations of the School Ethics Act.

At its meeting of October 28, 2014, the Commission voted to dismiss the complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted for a violation of the Act. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.8(a)(5).

SUMMARY OF THE PLEADINGS

The complainant alleges that the respondent/Board member exchanged text messages and requested pictures of the complainant/school staff member from his neighbor with whom he has a personal dispute unrelated to the complainant's role in the district. The complainant contends that the respondent then forwarded the materials to the Superintendent and the school's Business Administrator. The complainant asserts this was a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1 (c), (e), and (j).

The respondent argues that she had a duty to bring a complaint to the Superintendent and did not engage in an investigation.

ANALYSIS

The complainant has the burden to factually establish a violation of the Code of Ethics for School Board Members in accordance with the standards set forth at N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a). A complaint must include, among other requirements, specific allegations and the facts supporting them, which gave rise to the alleged violation(s) of the Act. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.3(b)3. Regulations further provide that the Commission may, in its discretion, dismiss complaints entirely or specific allegations in complaints, where the complaint, on its face, fails to allege facts sufficient to maintain a claim under the Act. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.2(a)7; N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.8(a)5.

The Commission first considers the allegations that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), (e) and (j), which state, respectively:

- c. I will confine my board action to policy making, planning, and appraisal, and I will help to frame policies and plans only after the board has consulted those who will be affected by them.¹
- e. I will recognize that authority rests with the board of education and will make no personal promises nor take any private action that may compromise the board.²
- j. I will refer all complaints to the chief administrative officer and will act on the complaints at public meetings only after failure of an administrative solution.³

Even assuming the facts as alleged in the complaint are true, the Commission does not find that respondent's actions in advising the Superintendent of complainant's alleged misuse of a school vehicle was a violation of the Code. Rather, the Commission found that the respondent acted within the scope of her duty as a Board member under subsection (j) when, upon receiving a complaint

(c) Fac

(c) Factual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) shall include evidence that the respondent(s) took board action to effectuate policies and plans without consulting those affected by such policies and plans, or took action that was unrelated to the respondent's duty to:

(e) Factual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e) shall include evidence that the respondent made personal promises or took action beyond the scope of his or her duties such that, by its nature, had the potential to compromise the board. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)5.

i. Develop the general rules and principles that guide the management of the school district or charter school;

ii. Formulate the programs and methods to effectuate the goals of the school district or charter school; or

iii. Ascertain the value or liability of a policy. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)3.

⁽j) Factual evidence of a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) shall include evidence that the respondent(s) acted on or attempted to resolve a complaint, or conducted an investigation or inquiry related to a complaint:

i. Prior to referral to the chief administrative officer; or

At a time or place other than a public meeting and prior to the failure of an administrative solution.

from a member of the public that the complainant was shoveling snow outside of his home while leaving a school vehicle on with the engine running, reported the matter to the Superintendent for resolution. The complainant does not contend that the respondent took any Board action or in any way participated further in the dispute other than to report his conduct.

The complainant asserts that the respondent conducted an investigation when she asked for corroboration in the form of photos of the complainant's conduct before reporting the matter to the Superintendent. The Commission determines that without such evidence, the allegation could have been considered rumor and without support, and the respondent may have risked a claim of defamation.

Additionally, the Commission finds that there are no facts set forth in the complaint that would support a conclusion that the respondent made personal promises or took action beyond the scope of her duties such that, by its nature, had the potential to compromise the board so as to violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(e). Complainant's supporting documents do not aver that the respondent made a personal promise to anyone and convey only that the respondent received a report of complainant's potential misuse of the school vehicle assigned to him and further that she requested photos to corroborate the conduct. As discussed, supra, the respondent had a duty to report a constituent's concerns to the Superintendent for resolution. Finally, complainant's allegation that the respondent took board action to effectuate policies and plans without consulting those affected by such policies and plans has no merit. Thus, the Commission finds that the complaint, on its face, fails to allege facts sufficient to maintain a claim that the respondent violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c), (e) or (j).

REQUEST FOR SANCTIONS

The respondent alleged that the complaint herein is frivolous. At its meeting on October 28, 2014, the Commission considered the respondent's request that the Commission find that the complaint was frivolous and impose sanctions pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:12-29(e). The Commission can find no evidence which might show that the complainant filed the complaint in bad faith solely for the purpose of harassment, delay or malicious injury. The Commission also has no information to suggest that the complainant should have known that the complaint was without any reasonable basis in law or equity or that it could not be supported by a good faith argument for an extension, modification or reversal of existing law. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-1.2. Therefore, the Commission finds that the complaint is not frivolous and denies the respondent's request for sanctions against the complainant.

DECISION

Based on the foregoing, and pursuant to its discretion, the Commission dismisses the within complaint for failure to allege facts sufficient to maintain a claim that would be a violation of the Act. N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.2(a)7; N.J.A.C. 6A:28-10.8(a)5. This is a final decision of an administrative agency, appealable to the Superior Court, Appellate Division. See, New Jersey Court Rule 2:2-3(a).
