

if the papers and discovery which have been filed, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact challenged and that the moving party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. When a motion for summary decision is made and supported, an adverse party in order to prevail must by responding affidavit set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue which can only be determined in an evidentiary proceeding. N.J.A.C. 1:1-12.5(b).

Upon careful and independent review, the Commission finds that the record supports the ALJ's conclusion that Count 1 is ripe for summary dismissal.¹ In so finding, the Commission concurs that the papers and discovery, together with the affidavits in this matter, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the respondent is entitled to prevail as a matter of law inasmuch as the facts fail to demonstrate that: (1) respondent violated any cited law, rule, regulation or court ruling as required by N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(a) (see, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)1); (2) respondent discussed personnel matters on the agenda in executive session and acted beyond the scope of her authority so as to violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(c) (see, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)3); (3) respondent became involved in the activities or functions that are the responsibility of school personnel so as to violate so as to violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(d) (see, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)4); (4) respondent failed to support and protect school personnel by acting on a difference of opinion so as to violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(i) (see, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)9); or (5) respondent acted on, or attempted to resolve a complaint, or conducted an investigation or inquiry related to a complaint prior to referral to the chief administrative officer or at a time or place other than a public meeting and prior to the failure of an administrative solution so as to violate N.J.S.A. 18A:12-24.1(j) (see, N.J.A.C. 6A:28-6.4(a)10).
