	:	SCHOOL ETHICS COMMISSION
v.	:	RESOLUTION
DEBORAH GROSS-QUATRONE,	:	SEC Docket No.: T04-98
Saddlebrook Twp. Board of Education	:
Bergen County	:

WHEREAS, the School Ethics Act, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-21 et. seq. was enacted by the New Jersey State Legislature to ensure and preserve public confidence in school board members and school administrators and to provide specific ethical standards to guide their conduct; and

WHEREAS, N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 requires new board members to attend training within one year of election or appointment to the board to gain the skills and knowledge necessary to serve as a school board member; and

WHEREAS, Deborah Gross-Quatrone was elected to serve a three-year term on the Saddle Brook Township Board of Education in April 1997; and

WHEREAS, the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) advises prospective board members of the training requirement in the “candidate kit;” and

WHEREAS, The NJSBA mails correspondence to all new board members who have failed to register for or attend an orientation and did mail such correspondence to this board member on February 23, 1998; and

WHEREAS, the NJSBA conducted seven training sessions between April 1997 and April 1998 at varying locations and continuously published the dates and times of the sessions in its publication, School Board Notes; and

WHEREAS, the last training session to fulfill the requirement was held on March 14, 1998; and

WHEREAS, the Commission issued an Order on April 15, 1998, directing Ms. Gross-Quatrone to Show Cause why she had not attended training up until that time; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Gross-Quatrone replied that she could not attend the February session to which she was registered due to illness, and could not attend the March session because she was out of the State on business, but that she plans to attend June 5-7, 1998, training session unless her pregnancy renders her physically unable to do so; and

WHEREAS, the Commission notified her that the Commission would discuss this matter at its May 26, 1998 meeting, that she had the right to attend, and could be found in violation of the School Ethics Act and receive a penalty up to removal; and

WHEREAS, the Commission has considered the reasons for failing to attend the required training program for the one year allowed; and

WHEREAS, the Commission finds that this failure to attend board member training from April 1997 to April 1998 constitutes a violation of N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33; and

WHEREAS, she could have attended one of the other sessions offered prior to her illness; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the School Ethics Commission finds that Ms. Gross-Quatrone violated N.J.S.A. 18A:12-33 of the School Ethics Act and recommends that the Commissioner of Education suspend her from the board for one meeting if she attends but suspend her until she attends training if she fails to attend the June training session due to the birth of her child.

Dated: May 26, 1998
