

ASSOCIATE SCHOOL LIBRARY MEDIA SPECIALIST (ASLMS)
CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY WITH ADVANCED STANDING (CEAS)
(ENDORSEMENT CODE: 2845)

TO AVOID DELAYS: After applying online, please email any transcripts, letters, forms, copies of out-of-state certification or other required documents to certapplication@doe.nj.gov. Electronic transcripts must be sent directly from your university, college, clearinghouse or school. Please include your tracking number in the subject line of all correspondence with our office.

The associate school library media specialist (ASLMS) endorsement is required for anyone who serves as a school library media specialist in all public schools under the supervision of a certified school administrator, principal or supervisor. The functions include delivery of instruction in information literacy skills, and the development and coordination of school library media programs and resources. The holder also provides instruction in the evaluation, selection, organization, distribution, creation and utilization of school library media. These media are defined as all print, non-print and electronic resources including the technologies needed for their use.

To qualify for the Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing (CEAS), you will need to present evidence of meeting these requirements:

- Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university
- Complete one of the two following options:
 1. A graduate curriculum approved by the Department as the basis for the Associate School Library Media Specialist certificate

OR

2. A program of graduate studies consisting of at least 18 semester-hour credits in a coherent sequence of studies including the following:
 - Access, evaluation, selection and utilization of library media resources;
 - Organization and coordination of school library media programs, resources and instruction to provide a sequential course of study for students;
 - Children's literature and young adult literature;
 - Design, development and integration of information literacy skills and the library media program throughout the school curriculum;
 - Design and development of multi-media materials;
 - Utilization of current and emergent technologies in all phases of school library media programs;
 - Field experience that includes instruction and management. This experience must be completed in a school library media center.

Please consult a regionally accredited, 4-year college/university to register for courses covering these required areas of study. If you believe that you have met this study, please provide official course descriptions along with your application.

- Complete one of the following three options:
 1. Hold a standard New Jersey or out-of-State instructional certificate. (A military science endorsement shall not satisfy this requirement.)

OR

2. Complete a State-approved college teacher preparation program with or without student teaching

OR

3. Complete a coherent college program at a regionally accredited college or university that includes a minimum of nine semester-hour credits in educational theory, curriculum design and integration, teaching methodology, student/learning development, and behavior management. Note: If you believe that this study is contained in coursework already completed, please have your college or university's Department Director/Chair of your program identify the courses that fulfill the areas of study in educational theory, curriculum design and integration, teaching methodology, student/learning development, and behavior management.

To qualify for the standard certificate after a CEAS has been issued, you will need to present evidence of meeting the requirements below:

- Possess a provisional educational services certificate with an ASLMS endorsement by obtaining employment in a position requiring the ASLMS endorsement.
- Complete a year-long school-based residency program in a school library media center. A certified school administrator, principal or supervisor shall provide supervision during the candidate's provisional year.
