Why Equity?

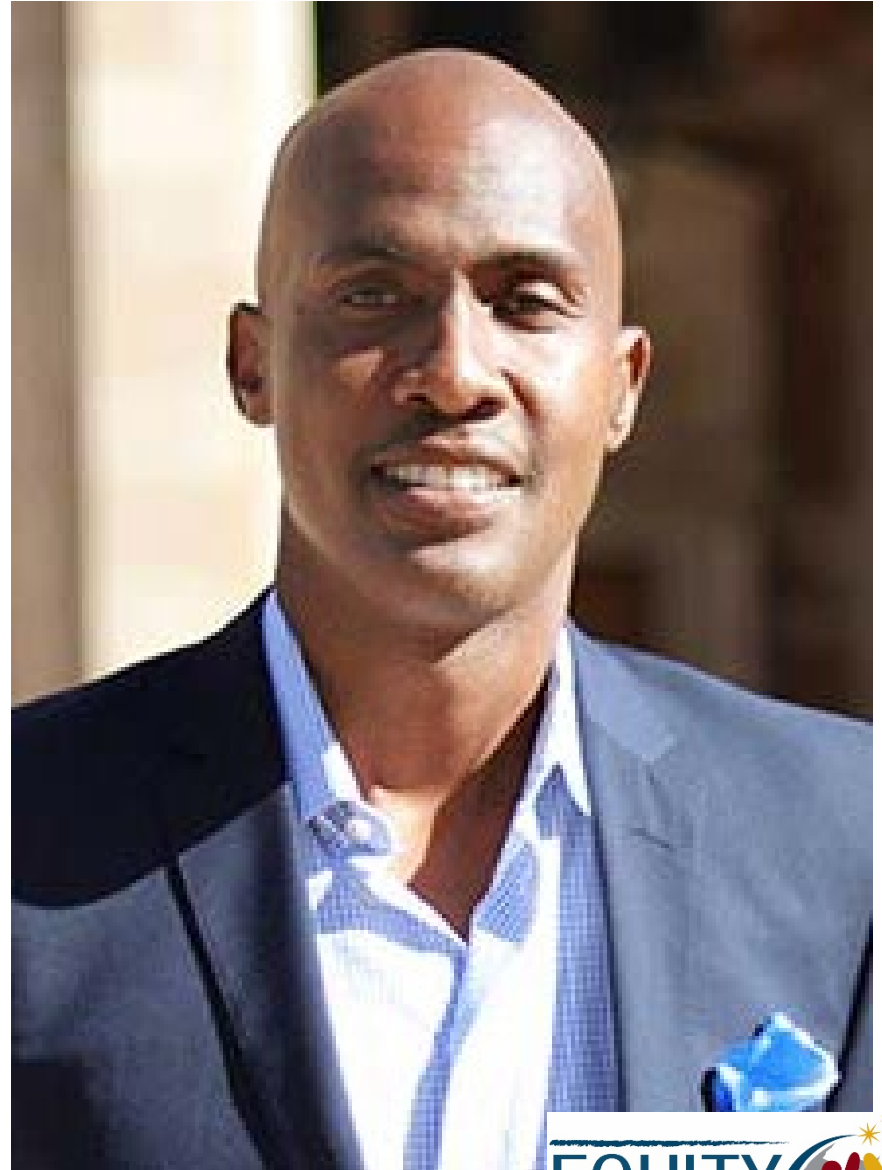

- Equity: Access, Opportunity & Inclusion for all students
- Vision of the NJDOE 2.0 – Increase Equity for Students
- Equity is our civil rights issue of today
- Research supports the need for all students to have access to educational excellence if they are to succeed
- Students deserve high-quality education that includes high-quality teachers with high expectations

Dr. Tyrone Howard, UCLA

Conference Keynote Speaker

- Dr. Tyrone C. Howard is a professor in the Graduate School of Education and Information Studies at UCLA
- He serves as Associate Dean for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.
- His research examines culture, race, teaching, and learning.

Conference will...

1. Illuminate the work that exemplary educators, schools, and districts are doing to strengthen teaching, leading, and learning through the lens of equity
2. Feature educators who will serve as models for other educators and school systems throughout the state for how they provide equitable access and opportunities to students
3. Promote cross district collaboration and partnership, where districts can learn promising practices and exchange resources with one another
