

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 4261
(First Reprint)

To the General Assembly:

Pursuant to Article V, Section I, Paragraph 14 of the New Jersey Constitution, I am returning Assembly Bill No. 4261 (First Reprint) with my recommendations for reconsideration.

This bill comes in response to the recent United States Supreme Court decision South Dakota v. Wayfair, which clarified that physical presence within a state is not a prerequisite for the collection of sales tax. The bill establishes the nexus that will be required for New Jersey to tax out-of-state retailers, including online retailers, and mirrors the South Dakota law upheld in Wayfair. It also clarifies tax treatment of third party sellers who use online platforms to sell goods and services.

I applaud the bill's sponsors for modernizing New Jersey's sales tax to reflect the realities of the digital marketplace. I am recommending modest revisions to assist the Division of Taxation in the administration of the new law's requirements. My proposed changes also clarify that the law should include tangible property as well as digital products (such as electronic books, music, movies and ringtones), and services, which are all subject to the sales tax under current law. Finally, my recommendations allow the Division of Taxation to audit marketplace facilitators to ensure proper compliance with the new law.

Therefore, I herewith return Assembly Bill No. 4261 (First Reprint) and recommend that it be amended as follows:

This presumption may be rebutted by proof that the independent contractor or representative with whom the person making sales has an agreement did not engage in any solicitation in the State on behalf of the person that would satisfy the nexus requirements of the United States Constitution during the four quarterly periods in question. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to narrow the scope of the terms independent contractor or other representative for purposes of any other provision of the "Sales and Use Tax Act," P.L.1966, c.30 (C.54:32B-1 et seq.);

A person is an agent of a seller in all cases, but not limited to such cases, that: (A) the person and the seller have the relationship of a "related person" described pursuant to section 2 of P.L.1993, c.170 (C.54:10A-5.5); and (B) the seller and the person use an identical or substantially similar name, tradename, trademark, or goodwill, to develop, promote, or maintain sales, or the person and the seller pay for each other's services in whole or in part contingent upon the volume or value of sales, or the person and the seller share a common business plan or substantially coordinate their business plans, or the person provides services to, or that inure to the benefit of, the seller related to developing, promoting, or maintaining the seller's market.
