VIII. Court Decisions of GRC Complaints on Appeal:

- Carter v. N.J. Dep't of Cmty. Affairs, 2019 N.J. Super. Unpub. LEXIS 2510 (App. Div. 2019): The Appellate Division affirmed the GRC finding that the Complainant’s request seeking notices from the Appellate Division for appeals of Local Finance Board decisions pertaining to violations of N.J.S.A. 40A:9-22.9 over a five (5) year period was invalid as overly broad. The court held that the request would require the Custodian to manually locate and review each case file to identify and compile responsive records, going beyond OPRA’s requirements. Additionally, the court held that the Complainant’s reliance on N.J.A.C. 1:1-4.1 to claim that his matter should have been adjudicated within thirty (30) days of receipt was misplaced, as the circumstances did not meet the definition of a “contested case” under N.J.A.C. 1:1-2.1. Lastly, the court found that the GRC did not act in bad faith regarding the delay between when the matter was filed and the date of adjudication and held that the GRC’s procedure of addressing complaints in the order received was established and was not arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.

IX. Complaints Adjudicated in NJ Superior Court & NJ Supreme Court: None
