Posting Number 421-23	Position Number 943874	Number of Positions 1	Posting Period * From: 05/23/2023 To: 06/06/2023
Location: Family Health Services/Special Child Health Services 55 North Willow Street, Trenton, NJ 08625-0364			Scope of Eligibility/Open to: Applicants who Meet the Requirements

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The New Jersey Early Hearing Detection and Intervention program (NJ EHDI) ensures that children have hearing screening completed and that those with abnormal screenings receive appropriate follow up. The program analyzes the impact of hearing loss and the effectiveness of early detection and intervention efforts for New Jersey children.

Under the direction of senior program staff, the Research Scientist 3 will:
Conduct research on current methods of newborn hearing screening and carry out program activities related to identification and treatment of hearing loss in infants and children. Assist with developing reports related to research findings, coordinate, and analyze the results of the program's grant activities and data and make programmatic recommendations. As coordinator of the EHDI program, monitor progress and evaluate the effectiveness of grantees who receive funds for programs for Deaf/Hard of Hearing children and their families; ensure that diagnosed children with hearing loss are included in the EHDI data system; and consult with department staff as subject-matter expert on research and the program activities.

Engage the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Community by participating in Newborn Hearing Screening council meetings, national Newborn Hearing Screening conferences, and collaborations with external divisions serving persons who are Deaf and Hard of Hearing.

REQUIREMENTS (EDUCATION / EXPERIENCE / LICENSES)

EDUCATION: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Master's degree in a discipline appropriate to the position.

EXPERIENCE: Two (2) years of experience in a field appropriate to the position.

NOTE: A Doctorate in a discipline appropriate to the position may be substituted for two (2) years of experience indicated above.

LICENSE: Appointees will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform the essential duties of the position.
